

Contents

About the Authors ix

Introduction xi

Part One Questions

1	Why Value Value?	3
2	Fundamental Principles of Value Creation	5
3	Conservation of Value and the Role of Risk	9
4	The Alchemy of Stock Market Performance	11
5	The Stock Market Is Smarter Than You Think	15
6	Return on Invested Capital	21
7	Growth	25
8	Frameworks for Valuation	29
9	Reorganizing the Financial Statements	33
10	Analyzing Performance	37
11	Forecasting Performance	41
12	Estimating Continuing Value	45
13	Estimating the Cost of Capital	49
14	Moving from Enterprise Value to Value per Share	53
15	Analyzing the Results	57

16	Using Multiples	61
17	Valuing by Parts	65
18	Taxes	69
19	Nonoperating Items, Provisions, and Reserves	73
20	Leases and Retirement Obligations	77
21	Alternative Measures of Return on Capital	81
22	Inflation	85
23	Cross-Border Valuation	89
24	Case Study: Heineken	93
25	Corporate Portfolio Strategy	99
26	Performance Management	103
27	Mergers and Acquisitions	107
28	Divestitures	113
29	Capital Structure, Dividends, and Share Repurchases	117
30	Investor Communications	121
31	Emerging Markets	125
32	Valuing High-Growth Companies	127
33	Cyclical Companies	129
34	Banks	133
35	Flexibility	137

Part Two Solutions

1	Why Value Value?	143
2	Fundamental Principles of Value Creation	145
3	Conservation of Value and the Role of Risk	147
4	The Alchemy of Stock Market Performance	149
5	The Stock Market Is Smarter Than You Think	151
6	Return on Invested Capital	153
7	Growth	155

8	Frameworks for Valuation	157
9	Reorganizing the Financial Statements	159
10	Analyzing Performance	161
11	Forecasting Performance	163
12	Estimating Continuing Value	167
13	Estimating the Cost of Capital	169
14	Moving from Enterprise Value to Value per Share	171
15	Analyzing the Results	173
16	Using Multiples	175
17	Valuing by Parts	177
18	Taxes	179
19	Nonoperating Items, Provisions, and Reserves	181
20	Leases and Retirement Obligations	185
21	Alternative Measures of Return on Capital	189
22	Inflation	191
23	Cross-Border Valuation	195
24	Case Study: Heineken	197
25	Corporate Portfolio Strategy	203
26	Performance Management	205
27	Mergers and Acquisitions	207
28	Divestitures	209
29	Capital Structure, Dividends, and Share Repurchases	211
30	Investor Communications	215
31	Emerging Markets	219
32	Valuing High-Growth Companies	221
33	Cyclical Companies	223
34	Banks	225
35	Flexibility	229