

Contents

Executive Summary	3
Introduction	7
I Tax Effects on Incumbent Firms	13
1 Taxation of Mature Firms	15
1.1 The old view of firm taxation	16
1.2 The new view of firm taxation	17
1.3 The open economy view of firm taxation	19
1.4 Policy implications of the new view of firm taxation	20
1.5 The old or the new view of firm taxation: What does the empirical evidence suggest?	22
2 Corporate Governance and Taxation	29
2.1 The effects of taxation on the conflicts of interest between owners and management	30
2.2 Empirical research on corporate governance and taxation .	32
3 The Relevance of the Small Open Economy Model for Owner- Level Taxation	37

Contents

Executive Summary	3
Introduction	7
1 Tax Effects on Incumbent Firms	13
1 Taxation of Mature Firms	15
1.1 The old view of firm taxation	16
1.2 The new view of firm taxation	17
1.3 The open economy view of firm taxation	19
1.4 Policy implications of the new view of firm taxation	20
1.5 The old or the new view of firm taxation: What does the empirical evidence suggest?	22
2 Corporate Governance and Taxation	29
2.1 The effects of taxation on the conflicts of interest between owners and management	30
2.2 Empirical research on corporate governance and taxation .	32
3 The Relevance of the Small Open Economy Model for Owner- Level Taxation	37

3.1	Foreign and domestic owners are not perfect substitutes . . .	38
3.2	Ownership taxes, ownership structure, and wealth accumulation	41
3.3	Firm size and access to foreign capital	44
4	Tax Effects on Existing Firms — A Summary of the Different Views	47
II	The Effect of Taxes on Startups and Entrepreneurial Firms	51
5	Owner-Level Taxes and Entrepreneurship	53
5.1	What does entrepreneurship mean and how is it measured?	54
5.2	The effects of taxation on different types of firms	56
5.3	Entrepreneurship and its support structure	58
5.4	Entrepreneurship as a factor of production	63
6	Taxation of Stock Options and Innovative Entrepreneurship	71
7	The Effects of Different Taxes on Debt and Owners' Equity	77
8	Conclusions	81
	Acknowledgements	87
	References	89

3.1	Foreign and domestic owners are not perfect substitutes . .	38
3.2	Ownership taxes, ownership structure, and wealth accumulation	41
3.3	Firm size and access to foreign capital	44
4	Tax Effects on Existing Firms — A Summary of the Different Views	47
II	The Effect of Taxes on Startups and Entrepreneurial Firms	51
5	Owner-Level Taxes and Entrepreneurship	53
5.1	What does entrepreneurship mean and how is it measured?	54
5.2	The effects of taxation on different types of firms	56
5.3	Entrepreneurship and its support structure	58
5.4	Entrepreneurship as a factor of production	63
6	Taxation of Stock Options and Innovative Entrepreneurship	71
7	The Effects of Different Taxes on Debt and Owners' Equity	77
8	Conclusions	81
	Acknowledgements	87
	References	89