

Contents

ix Acknowledgments

i Introduction:
Starting at the End
REBECCA WILLIAMS

PART ONE. EXPLORING MUSIC FANDOM

19 1. Remembering R.E.M.:
Social Media, Memories, and Endings within Music Fandom
LUCY BENNETT

31 2. “I’ll Never Break Your Heart”:
The Perpetual Fandom of the Backstreet Boys
SIMONE DRIESSEN

43 3. “My Music Was on Shuffle, One of Their Songs Came On, and I Had to Hit Next . . .”:
Navigating Grief and Disgust in Lostprophets Fandom
BETHAN JONES

PART TWO. TELEVISUAL ANNIVERSARIES, ENDINGS, AND FAN/PRODUCER RELATIONSHIPS

- 61 4. Breaking Up with Breaking Bad:
Relational Dissolution and the Critically Acclaimed AMC Series
MELISSA A. CLICK AND HOLLY WILLSON HOLLADAY
- 75 5. Fan Euthanasia:
A Thin Line between Love and Hate
PAUL BOOTH
- 87 6. Endings in Soap Opera:
Fan Anticipation, Speculation, and Reaction to EastEnders' 30th Anniversary Storyline
STUART BELL AND RUTH A. DELLER
- 101 7. "Is This What You Call a Breakup?"
The Cancellation of Merlin, Perceived Producer
Disloyalty, and "Television-as-Lover" Fandom
JOSEPH BRENNAN
- 113 8. Hannibal's Refrigerator:
Bryan Fuller's Response to Fans' (Critical) Rage
EVELYN DESHANE

PART THREE. FAN WORKS, ADAPTATIONS, AND ENDINGS

- 127 9. The Repurposed Fantasy:
Dōjinshi and the Japanese Media Mix
ANYA BENSON
- 139 10. When Production Is Over:
Creating Narrative Closure in Fan Edits
NICOLLE LAMERICHS
- 151 11. Creating Canon through Kickstarter:
Star Trek Continues
NICHOLA DOBSON

PART FOUR. FANDOM AND THE LOSS OF SPACE AND PLACE

- 167 12. Replacing Maelstrom:
Theme Park Fandom, Place, and the Disney Brand
REBECCA WILLIAMS
- 181 13. “The World’s Turned Inside Out,
and We Can Never Go Home Anymore”:
Punchdrunk’s Site-Specific Theater and Fan Interaction
EMILY GARSIDE
- 195 14. Internet Killed the Video Store:
Video Stores, Cultural Memory, Nostalgia, and Fandom
KATHLEEN WILLIAMS
- 209 Afterword:
Fannish Affect and Its Aftermath
KRISTINA BUSSE
- 219 Bibliography
- 251 Contributors
- 255 Index