

SUKETU MEHTA

This Land is Our Land

An Immigrant's Manifesto

JONATHAN CAPE

LONDON

Contents

Preface	xi
----------------	----

PART I: THE MIGRANTS ARE COMING

1. A Planet on the Move	3
2. The Fence: Amargo y Dulce	13
3. Ordinary Heroes	29
4. Two Sides of a Strait	41

PART II: WHY THEY'RE COMING

5. Colonialism	57
6. The New Colonialism	72
7. War	81
8. Climate Change	93

PART III: WHY THEY'RE FEARED

9. The Populists' False Narrative	105
10. A Brief History of Fear	110
11. Culture: Shitholes Versus Nordics	116
12. The Colour of Hate	125
13. The Alliance between the Mob and Capital	140
14. The Refugee as Pariah	147

PART IV: WHY THEY SHOULD BE WELCOMED

15. Jaikisan Heights	161
16. Jobs, Crime and Culture: The Threats That Aren't	168
17. We Do Not Come Empty-Handed	183
18. Immigration as Reparations	192
Epilogue: Family, Reunified – and Expanded	204
Notes on Sources	223
Acknowledgements	272
Index	273