

THE TORRID ZONE

Caribbean Colonization and Cultural Interaction in the Long Seventeenth Century

Edited by L. H. ROPER

The University of South Carolina Press

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

Part I

Indigenous and Other Caribbeans

Kalinago Colonizers:

Indigenous People and the Settlement of the Lesser Antilles

Tessa Murphy

17

Aphra Behn's Oroonoko, Indian
Slavery, and the Anglo-Dutch Wars

Carolyn Arena

31

Indigeneity and Authority in the Lesser Antilles:

The Warners Revisited

Sarah Barber

46

Part II

Empire, Settlement, and War in the Torrid Zone:

The Cases of Suriname, Jamaica, Danish West Indies, and Saint-Domingue

Second Is Best:

Dutch Colonization on the "Wild Coast"

Jessica Vance Roitman

61

Colonial Life in Times of War:

The Impact of European Wars on Suriname

Suze Zijlstra and Tom Weterings

76

Reassessing Jamayca Española:
Spanish Fortifications and English Designs in Jamaica
Amanda J. Snyder

92

Making Jamaica English:
Priorities and Processes
James Robertson

105

The Danish West Indies, 1660s–1750s:
Formative Years
Erik Gøbel

118

Creating a Caribbean Colony in the Long Seventeenth Century:
Saint-Domingue and the Pirates
Giovanni Venegoni

132

Part III

Extending the Torrid Zone

The Martinican Model:
Colonial Magistrates and the Origins of a Global Judicial Elite
Laurie M. Wood

149

Experimenting with Acceptance, Caribbean-Style:
Jews as Aliens in the Anglophone Torrid Zone
Barry L. Stiefel

162

Carolina, the Torrid Zone, and the Migration of Anglo-American Political Culture
L. H. Roper

176

Notes 187

Bibliography 225

Contributors 249

Index 253