

Contents

	Tables, Maps, and Figures	xv
	Abbreviations	xvii
1	Japan in a Time of Crisis	i
	A Land of Milk and Honey 6/ Sekishiba 10/ Revitalization and the Modern Countryside 12
2	Locations	19
	The Tōhoku 20/ Fukushima and Aizu 24/ Kitakata 27/ Sekishiba 32
3	The Rural Depression	42
	The Crises of the 1920s 44/ The Great Depression: Crises of Farms and Finances 50/ The Crises of Community 68/ The Crises of State and Nation 80
4	Rescuing the Countryside	84
	Yesterday's Countryside 87/ Putting Farmers First: The Agrarianist Campaign for Relief 94/ The Agrarianist Legacy 110/ Managing Debt 113/ Debt Arrangement in Practice 129/ Conclusions 132
5	Crafting Rural Relief	135
	Public Works as Relief 137/ Relief at the Village Level 146/ Assessing Rural Relief 152/ The Limits of Relief 155/ The Military and Rural Relief 166/ Conclusions 170

6	Revitalization	172
	Local Reform 174/ Self-revitalization on the National Stage 188/ Development of a National Self-revitalization Program 192/ Self-revitalization, the Ministries, and the Sixty-third Diet 196/ The Framework of Revitalization 206/ The Popular Culture of Reform and Revitalization 214/
7	Revitalization in a Famine Year: Sekishiba, 1934–1935	224
	Embracing Revitalization 225/ Revitalization Strategies 239/ The 1934 Famine 241/ Surviving the Famine 251/ A Village Plans 259/ The Best-Laid Plans 266/
8	The Village Economy, 1935–1939	269
	Organizing for Recovery 271/ Community Infrastructure 277/ Farm Production 281/ Family and Village Finances 284/ From Recovery to War: The Village Economy at the End of the Decade 286/
9	Reconstructing Community: Sekishiba, 1935–1937	288
	The Mayor, the Businessman, and the Committee 291/ Harmony, Culture, and Discipline 303/ Yabe and the Hōtoku Societies 304/ The Hamlet Assemblies 312/ The Reform of Daily Life 319/ Conclusions 321
10	Sekishiba in Wartime	325
	Revitalization, the Rural Economy, and the Early Years of the War 329/ Mobilizing the Village 335/ Village Mainstays 339/ Emigration and Revitalization 345/ Mobilization and the Modern Countryside 349
11	The Elusive Revitalized Village	353
	Occupation Reforms 353/ Creating the Prosperous Countryside 358/ City and Country 361/ The Elusive Revitalized Village 366/

Appendix

Membership of Sekishiba's Economic Revitalization Committee, 1934	373
---	-----

Reference Matter

Notes	379
Works Cited	451
Index	469