

Governance Indicators

Approaches, Progress, Promise

Edited by

Helmut K. Anheier, Matthias Haber, and Mark A. Kayser

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Tables, Figures, and Box	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii
About the Contributors	xv
1. Governance Indicators: Development and Assessment Helmut K. Anheier	1
Part I. What Are Indicators For and What Difference Do They Make?
2. A Comparative Classification and Assessment of Governance Indices Matthias Haber and Olga Kononykhina	11
3. Beyond Measurement: What is Needed for Effective Governance and Anti-Corruption Reforms? Francis Fukuyama and Francesca Recanatini	43
4. Can a Civilisation Know Its Own Institutional Decline? A Tale of Indicators Alina Mungiu-Pippidi and Roberto Martínez Barranco Kukutschka	71
Part II. Measuring and Communicating Governance Solutions
5. Measuring Governance: Objective and Perceptions-based Governance Indicators James R. Hollyer	103
6. Considerations on the Method of Constructing Governance Indices Piero Stanig	134
7. Innovations in Objectively Measuring Corruption in Public Procurement Mihály Fazekas, Luciana Cingolani, and Bence Tóth	154

Contents

---

8. The Opportunities and Limitations of Crowdsourcing Policy Indicators David Osimo	186
9. The Reproducibility of Governance Indicators: Assessing Current Practices and Looking Forward Christopher Gandrud	203
10. Governance Indicators and the Broken Feedback Loop: Leveraging Communications for Impact Hazel Feigenblatt	225
 Part III. The Way Forward
11. Measuring Governance: An Assessment of the Research Challenges Mark A. Kayser	255
12. Addressing the Policy Challenge: Improving Supply of and Meeting Demands for Sound Evidence Rolf Alter	270
 Index	 289