

Cyber Law and Ethics

Regulation of the Connected World

Second Edition

Mark Grabowski and Eric P. Robinson

Contents

Preface	ix
About the Authors	xi
Acknowledgments	xii
1 Born Digital: How the Internet Was Built and How It Works	1
2 Managing Cyberspace: How the Internet Is Governed	23
3 Mapping the Digital Frontier: How Cyber Law Is Made in the United States	42
4 Speaking in Code: Freedom of Online Speech in the United States	67
5 Drawing the Line: Legal Limits on Online Speech	83
6 Blurring the Line: Gray Areas in Online Speech	120
7 Anonymity in a Sharing World: Privacy in the Information Age	148
8 Virtual Ideas: Intellectual Property Online	176
9 Terms and Conditions Apply: Doing Business in the E-Commerce Era	205
10 Danger in the Data: Guarding Against Cyberthreats	232
11 Rules of Play: Regulating Online Games and Virtual Worlds	264

12	Real Rules for an Artificial World: Artificial Intelligence and the Law	286
13	Next Generation: Emerging Issues in Cyber Law	301
	Case Index	324
	Index	326