

The Art of Writing Fiction

Second Edition

Andrew Cowan

Contents

Introduction	1
1 Writers' routines	6
1. When where what...	9
2. Time-wasting	10
3. Friends and foes	15
4. What where when...	16
2 Write about what you know: observational journals	18
5. Keeping an observational journal	22
6. Keeping a scrapbook	24
7. Weather report	25
8. Street life	26
9. Workplace	27
10. Home life	29
3 Write about what you don't know you know: automatic writing	35
11. First thoughts	36
12. First things	40
13. First thoughts, second thoughts	43
14. First drafts	49
4 Don't tell me...	50
15. Telling it slant	52
16. Don't mention it	55
17. How does this feel?	56
18. Sightless	60
19. Hyacinths	61
20. Scene and summary	65

5	Write about what you used to know: remembering and place	67
21.	Lost things	70
22.	Lost lands	70
23.	Lost selves	71
24.	Lost loves	71
25.	'Lost'	72
26.	Departures	74
27.	Typical	76
28.	Untypical	77
29.	A place	78
30.	A person	80
6	Write about who you know: character	81
31.	A portrait of yourself as you are to yourself	84
32.	A portrait of yourself as you are to someone else	85
33.	Twenty questions	86
34.	Q&A gimmick	90
35.	Notes towards a character	91
36.	Envelopes	92
37.	A character as an item of furniture	93
38.	Still life	97
39.	Two characters	100
7	Voices	102
40.	Oral history	105
41.	Conversation	106
42.	Formatting dialogue	108
43.	Dramatic twist	111
44.	Cross-purposes	113
45.	Vernacular voices	118
46.	In summary	120
8	Viewpoints	124
47.	Something is happening out there	126
48.	Something else is happening	131
49.	Captors and captives	133
50.	Eye witness	134
51.	You	138
52.	You, too	140
53.	Third, and finally	146

9	Middles, ends, beginnings: structure	147
	54. Story vs plot	147
	55. Diagnostics	149
	56. Beginning middle end	153
	57. Because	155
	58. n times what happened once	157
	59. Pause	157
	60. Middle beginning end	159
	61. End middle beginning	159
	62. Sub-plotting	160
	63. Shuffling	161
	64. Never mind ‘because’...	164
	65. Mapping	165
	66. Rearranging	167
10	Making strange: defamiliarisation	168
	67. Literally	169
	68. Figuratively	169
	69. Lipogram	173
	70. Given words	175
	71. Given moods	175
	72. Exercises in style	178
	73. Mathews’s Algorithm (almost)	179
	74. Horizontal	181
	75. Vertical	183
11	Making clear: revision, grammar, and punctuation	185
	76. Punctuation	185
	77. Some more First Thoughts	185
	78. Prepositions	187
	79. Checklist	189
	80. Next thoughts	190
	81. Simple	197
	82. Compound	199
	83. Complex	203
	84. Compound-complex	206

12	Workshopping	207
	Appendix: Approaching agents & publishers	227
	85. Approaching agents & publishers	228
	Bibliography	232
	Index	239