

Studies in Early Medicine 3

Series Editors: Sally Crawford and Christina Lee

Social Dimensions of Medieval Disease and Disability

Edited by

Sally Crawford
Christina Lee

BAR International Series 2668

2014

Contents

Foreword .....	1
Contributors .....	3
Chapter 1
Introduction: social dimensions of medieval disease and disability .....	5
Sally Crawford
Chapter 2
The unhal and the semantics of Anglo Saxon disability .....	7
Fay Skevington
Chapter 3
Invisible enemies: the role of epidemics in the shaping of historical events in the early medieval period .....	15
Christina Lee
Chapter 4
The Madness of King Sigurðr: Narrating Insanity in an Old Norse Kings' Saga .....	29
Ármann Jakobsson
Chapter 5
'He was not an idiota from birth, nor is he now': false, temporary, and overturned charges of mental incapacity in 14th-century England .....	37
Wendy Turner
Chapter 6
Disabling Masculinity: Manhood and Infertility in the High Middle Ages .....	47
Rachel Middlemass and Theresa Tyers
Chapter 7
Speechless: speech and hearing impairments as problem of medieval normative texts - theological, natural-philosophical, legal .....	59
Irina Metzler
Chapter 8
Leprosy, Lepers and Leper-houses: between Human Law and God's Law (6th-15th centuries) .....	69
Damien Jeanne	