

HARVARD JUDAICA COLLECTION
STUDENT RESEARCH PAPERS

No. 14

Civilizing Omission

French-Jewish Philanthropy and Historical Amnesia
During and After the Iranian Constitutional Revolution

by
Nancy Ko

HARVARD
LIBRARY

Cambridge, Massachusetts
2018

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments _____	i
Note on Sources and Translation _____	ii
Introduction: Reading the Politics of History in the Archives of the Alliance Israélite Universelle _____	1
Chapter 1: Between Regeneration and Rehabilitation: The Paradox of the Alliance _____	11
The Civilizing Mission: From “Young Persia” to “Western Civilization” _____	12
The Civilizing Hermeneutic: From Indigenous Teaching to the Constitutional Revolution _____	18
The Constitutional Wind: From the Ottoman Empire to Iran _____	22
Persistent Optimism, Unfulfilled Constitutionalism _____	26
“Where the Years Count Double”: Continuity in Revolution _____	28
Chapter 2: Competing Loyalties: Philanthropy as Politics in the Constitutional Period _____	34
French Jews, Iranian Jews, Baha’i Jews _____	37
“Purely Charitable and Philanthropic”: The Lahana-Leibovici Affair of 1907 _____	43
Colonial Neutrality: The Habib Affair of 1915 _____	49
Alliance Jews as Iranian Jews _____	54
Conclusion: From “Mizrahi Jewish History” to “Modern Middle Eastern Jewish History” _____	60
Bibliography _____	69