

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Preface: Hailing from Texas	xi
Acknowledgments	xix

Introduction: The Labor of Multiculturalism	i
---	---

PART ONE

RECOGNIZING BURAKU DIFFERENCE

1 · Of Skins and Workers: Producing the Buraku	31
2 · "Ushimatsu Left for Texas": Passing the Buraku	60

PART TWO

CHOICE AND OBLIGATION IN CONTEMPORARY BURAKU POLITICS

3 · Locating the Buraku: A Political Ecology of Pollution	93
4 · A Sleeping Public: Buraku Politics and the Cultivation of Human Rights	121

PART THREE

INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS AND THE POSSIBILITIES OF SOLIDARITY

5 · Demanding a Standard: Buraku Politics on a Global Stage	153
6 · Wounded Futures: Prospects of Transnational Solidarity	185

Conclusion: The Disciplines of Multiculturalism 215

Epilogue: Texas to Japan, and Back 237

Notes 241

References 257

Index 273