

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	v
Acknowledgements	vi
A Note on Transliteration	viii
Glossary	ix
Introduction	1
The Social Facets of Clerical Authority	4
Transnational Authority between Communities and States	10
Two Families of Religious Scholars	13
Part I Family, Students and Friends: From Dyadic to Transnational Networks	19
1 An Iraqi Family of Religious Scholars: Local and Transnational Networking Strategies	21
The Hawza 's Social Capital and the Making of Interpersonal Networks	22
Old Networks for a New Life in Exile	31
Institutionalising Najaf's Scholarly and Familial Networks in an Exiled Political Organisation	36
Conclusion	44
2 An Iranian Marja' in Najaf and a Foundation in London: Reproducing Interpersonal Ties across Place and over Time	48
The Marja' iyya 's Local and Transnational Networks	48
Traditional Networks in an Unconventional Structure	57
Conclusion	70
Part II Charitable Politics: Benevolent Patrons, Beneficiaries and the State	73
3 Leadership in Patronage: the Benefits of Serving and Educating a Marja' Reconnecting with Iraqi Shi'a	75
An Imported Leader at the Service of the Shi'a	76
	78

Guardians of Shi'ism

Charity for Political Loyalty and Recognition in Exile	82
Conclusion	92
4 The Priority of Charity: a Global Brand of Philanthropy in its Local Making	94
Patronage and Clerical Politics in the Seminaries	95
Transnational Charity: Many Encounters with the State	100
Institutionalising Shi'ism in the West	110
Conclusion	116
Part III The Affairs of the State: Clerical Participation in Politics	119
5 From Najaf to Najaf: a Family at the Forefront of Iraqi Politics	123
The Political Choices of an Iraqi Marja'	124
Opposing Baghdad in Exile	132
The Politics of Self-representation in the New Iraqi Polity	154
Conclusion	161
6 Quietist Activism: Calculated Responses to Political Turmoil	165
A Marja' in the Midst of Iranian and Iraqi Politics	166
Representing the Voice of the Shi'a	177
Conclusion	186
Conclusion	189
Reaching Out to the Community	189
The Significance of the State	193
Four Features of Transnational Clerical Authority	196
Notes	204
Bibliography	237
Index	268