

CONTENTS

PART I. Some Fundamental Ideas	13
1. What Language Is	13
2. What Language-Learning Is	14
3. What Language-Teaching Is	18
4. An Oral Approach to Language- Learning	23
5. Moving Ahead Step by Step	25
PART II. Teaching Suggestions	29
1. Some General Suggestions	29
a) You never have to work alone	29
b) That first class	29
c) Using "controls"	31
d) Some suggestions for using pictures	34
e) Routines	39

2. Teaching Pronunciation	42
3. Teaching Grammar	48
4. Teaching Vocabulary	57
5. Conversation Classes	60
6. Reading and Writing	66
7. Some Notes on Conversation, Reading, and Writing	72
8. What About Audio-Visual Aids?	74
9. Other Features of Your Teaching Situa- tion	78
a) How old are your students?	78
b) How much English do your students already know?	81
c) How often does your class meet? ..	84
d) What is the size of your class?	84
e) Is attendance voluntary?	85
f) Will your students have time for homework?	85
g) Are you working in an established school?	86

PART III. Some Useful Information About the English Language

1. About the Sounds of English	87
2. About English Grammar	103
a) Exercises, Set 1	103
b) Exercises, Set 2	104

CONTENTS

c) Exercises, Set 3.....	107
d) Dealing with mistakes in grammar .	118
PART IV. “What Now?”.....	124
Bibliography.....	125