

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Part I. Concepts
Introduction	3
Anti-liberal Europe – A Neglected Source of Europeanism Dieter Gosewinkel
1. The Elusiveness of European (Anti-)liberalism Michael Freeden	33
Part II. Anti-liberalism: A Feature of Colonial and Conservative Concepts of Europe
2. Europe as a Colonial Project: A Critique of its Anti-liberalism Fabian Klose	47
3. Facing the Future Backwards: 'Abendland' as an Anti-liberal Idea of Europe in Germany between the First World War and the 1960s Vanessa Conze	72
4. The Call for a New European Order: Origins and Variants of the Anti-liberal Concept of the 'Europe of the Regions' Undine Ruge	90

Part III. Anti-liberal Europe in Dictatorships and their Aftermath

5. The 'New European Order' of National Socialism: Some Remarks on its Sources, Genesis and Nature Jürgen Elvert	105
6. Three Kinds of Collaboration: Concepts of Europe and the 'Franco-German Understanding' – The Career of SS-Brigadeführer Gustav Krukenberg Peter Schöttler	128
7. Communist Europeanism: A Case Study of the GDR Jana Wuestenhagen	157
Afterword The Limits of an Anti-liberal Europe Martin Conway	179
Notes on Contributors	191
Index	195