

Contents

|                                                           |           |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Acknowledgements                                          | v         |
| To the teacher                                            | vi        |
| To the student who uses this book                         | vi        |
| Introduction                                              | 1         |
|                                                       |           |
| 1 Writing notes and memos                          | 13 |
| 1.1 Explanations                                          | 13        |
| 1.2 Arrangements                                          | 14        |
| 1.3 Instructions                                          | 16        |
| 1.4 Inquiries and requests                                | 17        |
| 1.5 Apologies and explanations                            | 19        |
|                                                       |           |
| 2 Writing personal letters                         | 22 |
| 2.1 Invitations                                           | 23        |
| 2.2 Requests and inquiries                                | 23        |
| 2.3 Acceptances and refusals                              | 25        |
| 2.4 Arrangements                                          | 26        |
| 2.5 Apologies and explanations                            | 28        |
| 2.6 Congratulations and commiserations                    | 31        |
| 2.7 Thank-you letters                                     | 33        |
| 2.8 Expressing positive and negative emotions             | 33        |
| 2.9 General personal letters                              | 35        |
|                                                       |           |
| 3 Writing telegrams, personal ads and instructions | 38 |
| 3.1 Writing telegrams and telexes                         | 38        |
| 3.2 Writing personal ads                                  | 41        |
| 3.3 Writing instructions                                  | 42        |
|                                                       |           |
| 4 Writing descriptions                             | 47 |
| 4.1 Describing people                                     | 47        |
| 4.2 Describing places                                     | 52        |
| 4.3 Describing objects                                    | 58        |
| 4.4 Describing human scenes                               | 63        |
| 4.5 Describing landscape                                  | 69        |
| 4.6 Describing habits and conditions                      | 77        |
| 4.7 Describing processes                                  | 79        |

|          |                                             |            |
|----------|---------------------------------------------|------------|
| 5 | Reporting experiences                | 83  |
| 5.1      | Reporting incidents and events              | 83         |
| 5.2      | Writing biographical information            | 89         |
| 5.3      | Narrating                                   | 91         |
| 5.4      | Reporting speech                            | 96         |
|      |                                             |            |
| 6 | Writing to companies and officials   | 101 |
| 6.1      | Form-filling                                | 102        |
| 6.2      | Request letters                             | 112        |
| 6.3      | Letters of application                      | 117        |
| 6.4      | Giving information                          | 121        |
| 6.5      | Giving instructions                         | 122        |
| 6.6      | Letters of complaint                        | 124        |
| 6.7      | Letters of apology and explanation          | 126        |
|      |                                             |            |
| 7 | Presenting facts, ideas and opinions | 129 |
| 7.1      | Paragraph writing                           | 130        |
| 7.2      | Letters to newspapers                       | 136        |
| 7.3      | Summary reports                             | 140        |
| 7.4      | Personal and factual reports                | 146        |
| 7.5      | Essay-writing                               | 150        |
|      |                                             |            |
|          | Key to exercises                            | 152        |