

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction Japanese New Religions Abroad: A Case of 'Reverse' Globalization. Peter B. Clarke	1
1 New Japanese Religions in the West: Between Nationalism and Universalism. Catherine Cornille	10
2 Spiritual Companies, Corporate Religions: Japanese Companies and Japanese New Religious Movements at Home and Abroad. Louella Matsunaga	35
3 Japanese Religion in Australia: Mahikari and Zen in a Multicultural Society. Gary D. Bouma, Wendy Smith and Shiva Vasi	74
4 The New Japanese Religions in Brazil: Some Remarks on the Church of World Messianity. Ari Pedro Oro	113
5 Modern Japanese Millenarian Movements: Their Changing Perception of Japan's Global Mission with Special Reference to the Church of World Messianity in Brazil. Peter B. Clarke	129
6 Adapt or Perish: The Story of Soka Gakkai in Germany. Sanda Ionescu	182
7 Spirit First, Mind Follows, Body Belongs: Notions of Health, Illness and Disease in Sukyo Mahikari UK Louella Matsunaga	198

8	Illness and Salvation in Tensho-Kotai-Jingu-Kyo – The Dancing Religion of Hawaii. Tina Hamrin	24
9	Shin Buddhism in the West: An Overview. Alfred Bloom	25
10	'Success' and 'Failure': Japanese New Religions Abroad. Peter B. Clarke	27
	Select Bibliography	312
	Index	318