

Contents

---

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	xv
1 The Myth of Tiwanaku	1
The Native Myths	1
The Modern Mythographers	10
Myth, History, and the People of Tiwanaku	18
2 The Sources	21
The Ethnohistoric Evidence	22
The Archaeological Evidence	27
The Linguistic and Ethnographic Evidence	32
The Paleoecological Evidence	36
3 The Natural and Social Setting	38
Ecology and Economy	51
4 Tiwanaku Emergence	56
Tiwanaku Precursors	59
Tiwanaku Emergence	81
5 Taypikala: The City at the Center	87
Sacred Geography and Urban Design	90
Tiwanaku's Civic-Ceremonial Core	103
Tiwanaku's Social Map	172

6	Metropole and Hinterland	177
	Local Environment	179
	Tiwanaku's Local Economy	181
	The Technology of Raised Field Agriculture	183
	Carrying Capacity, Population, and Food Supply	199
	The Social Organization of Agricultural Production	205
	Herders and Fishers	231
	Political Economy and the Social Nature of Tiwanaku	240
7	The Empire Expands	243
	Ideology and Imperialism in the Titicaca Basin	246
	The Yungas Zones: Colonial Agricultural Provinces	250
	Caravans, Clients, and the Far Periphery	272
8	The Decline and Fall of Tiwanaku	282
	Climate and Collapse	284
	Vulnerability of Tiwanaku Agricultural Systems	291
	The Evidence of Changing Settlement Patterns	295
	The Aftermath of Collapse	298
	Bibliography	303
	Index	313