

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| Introduction | xi |
| Part I: Contemporary Classics | 1 |
| 1 “Ordinary Miracles”: Stephen King’s Writing (and Painting) a “Way Back to Life” in Duma Key Hayley Mitchell Haugen | 3 |
| 2 A Tale of Ambiguous Morality: Narrative Technique in Under the Dome Jennifer L. Miller | 13 |
| 3 “There’s No Place Like Dome”: An Assessment of the Adaptation of Stephen King’s Under the Dome into a Prime- Time Drama Tamara Watkins | 27 |
| 4 Reading Joyland and Doctor Sleep as Complementary Stories Clotilde Landais | 41 |
| Part II: Modern Horrors | 55 |
| 5 Failure Is Indeed an Option: Pride, Prophecy, and Roland Deschain’s Perpetual Quest for the Dark Tower Patrick McAleer | 57 |
| 6 Trisha McFarland and the Tough Tootsie: Coping with Fear in The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Matthew M. Holman | 75 |

| | | |
|----|---|------------|
| 7 | “Morality”: Stephen King’s Most Disturbing Story? Philip L. Simpson | 85 |
| 8 | In Search of the Lost Object in a Bad Place: Stephen King’s Contemporary Gothic Alexandra Reuber | 101 |
| 9 | A Different Breed: Stephen King’s Serial Killers Rebecca Frost | 117 |
| | Part III: Stephen King and Writing | 133 |
| 10 | How to Draw a King: Duma Key , Blues, Literary Modernism, and the Artist Michael Perry | 135 |
| 11 | It Lurks Beneath the Fold: Stephen King, Adaptation, and the Pop-Up Text of The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Carl H. Sederholm | 149 |
| 12 | Bachman’s “Found” Novels: The Regulators , Blaze , and Author Identity Kimberly Beal | 161 |
| 13 | King’s Toolbox: For Writing and for Life? Mika Elovaara | 177 |
| 14 | “The Blue Diamond” Steph Post | 193 |
| | Bibliography | 201 |
| | Index | 209 |
| | About the Editors and Contributors | 217 |