

Contents

Introduction	6
1 Approaching post-colonial writing	10
Transcultural writing
V.S. Naipaul and Salman Rushdie: the problem of context	10
Michael Ondaatje: the search for identity	14
India
The historical and cultural context: British rule and Indian culture	16
Pre-independence literature: the development of the Indian novel	19
Mulk Raj Anand	19
Raja Rao	20
R.K. Narayan	21
The historical and cultural context: independence and partition	22
Post-independence Indian writing	23
Salman Rushdie	24
Anita Desai	26
Arundhati Roy	28
Africa
The historical and cultural context	29
Modern African writing in English	32
Chinua Achebe	33
Wole Soyinka	35
Ngugi wa Thiong'o	38
South Africa: the historical and cultural context	40
South African literature and apartheid	41
Athol Fugard	42
Nadine Gordimer	42
J.M. Coetzee	44
Post-apartheid South Africa	46
The Caribbean
The historical and cultural context	48
The 1930s and 1940s: asserting a Caribbean identity	52

C.L.R. James	52
V.S. Reid	53
Una Marson and Louise Bennett	54
Independence and post-independence: the political and cultural background	55
Derek Walcott	56
Kamau Brathwaite	58
Assignments	59
2 Approaching the texts	61
The use of indigenous traditions	61
The appropriation of English	63
Post-colonial literature and the English canon	64
Gender	66
The range of texts within post-colonial writing	68
Assignments	69
3 Texts and extracts	70
Colonial writing
Joseph Conrad from 'Heart of Darkness'	70
India
Mulk Raj Anand from Coolie	71
Raja Rao from Kanthapura	73
R.K. Narayan from The English Teacher	74
Salman Rushdie from Midnight's Children	76
Anita Desai from In Custody	77
Africa
Chinua Achebe from Things Fall Apart	78
Ngugi wa Thiong'o from A Grain of Wheat	80
Wole Soyinka from Madmen and Specialists	81
V.S. Naipaul from A Bend in the River	83
Tsitsi Dangarembga from Nervous Conditions	84
Ben Okri from The Famished Road	86
South Africa
Athol Fugard from The Coat	88
Nadine Gordimer from Burger's Daughter	89
J.M. Coetzee from Life and Times of Michael K	90

The Caribbean
C.L.R. James from Minty Alley	92
V.S. Reid from New Day	93
Una Marson 'Kinky Hair Blues'	95
Louise Bennett from 'Jamaica Oman'	96
V.S. Naipaul from Miguel Street	97
Derek Walcott from Part IV of 'A Simple Flame'	98
Kamau Brathwaite from 'Wings of a Dove'	100
4 Critical approaches	102
The influence of theory on post-colonial criticism	102
Key concepts in post-colonial criticism	103
Feminist criticism	111
How to write about post-colonial literature	113
How to write about colonial literature	115
Writing about English literature from a post-colonial perspective	116
Assignments	117
5 Resources	119
Bibliography of texts discussed	119
Further reading	120
Glossary	123
Index	126
Acknowledgements	128