

Contents

I INTRODUCTION 1

II ORAL LITERATURE AND TOTAL THEATRE 10

The traditional narrator

Myths and interpreted stories

The ancestors

The Epic

Story and song

The animal world as a mirror
of the human world

Puppet shows and masquerades

Short comedies and farces

III	THE ORAL TRADITION: A SOURCE OF INSPIRATION	51
	The 'William Ponty School'
	The Nigerian folk opera
	Myths and ancestors
	History and the Epic
	Stories and fables
IV	CONFRONTATION WITH COLONIALISM	72
	First acquaintance
	The colonial system
	Assimilation
	Protest
V	TRADITION AND CHANGE	99
	Breaking the taboo
	Ambivalent behaviour
	Tribalism
	Marriage and dowry
	Emancipation
VI	THE WORLD OF THE BIG CITY	120
	Big and small profiteers
	'High life' and misery
	Popular theatre in the city
VII	THEATRE AND SOCIETY: THE VISION OF WOLE SOYINKA	136
	Backgrounds and influences
	African heritage and negritude
	Sceptical questions
	Tradition or progress?
VIII	CONCLUSION	153
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	157