

---

Contents

---

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: The Structure of the Enlightenment	1
Part I. Inaugurating the Modern Caribbean Historical Imagination
1 Carpentier and the Temporalities of Mutual Exclusion	29
2 Enlightened Hesitations: C. L. R. James, Toussaint L'Ouverture, and the Black Masses	57
Part II. Chauvet, Condé, and the Postmodern Turn in the Caribbean Historical Imagination
3 Conflicted Epiphanies: Politicized Aesthetics in Marie Chauvet's Dance on the Volcano	87
4 Alliances and Enmities in Maryse Condé's Historical Imagination	108
Part III. The Center and the Periphery Cannot Hold
5 Cuban Cogito: Reinaldo Arenas and the Negative Historical Imagination	131
6 Heightened Perceptions: Rodríguez Juliá and the Mechanics of Temporality	151

viii. Contents

Conclusions: Before and After, Here and There	175
Notes	195
Works Cited	213
Index	225