

Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
| Foreword | |
| Clifford Geertz | xi |
| Introduction | |
| Patricia Bizzell | 1 |
| | |
| Donald Davidson | |
| Language Philosophy, Writing, and Reading: A Conversation with Donald Davidson | |
| Thomas Kent | 9 |
| | |
| The Malaprop in Spite of Herself: A Desperate Reading of Donald Davidson | |
| Susan Wells | 29 |
| | |
| A Response to “Language Philosophy, Writing, and Reading: A Conversation with Donald Davidson” | |
| Reed Way Dasenbrock | 35 |
| | |
| Stanley Fish | |
| Fish Tales: A Conversation with “The Contemporary Sophist” | |
| Gary A. Olson | 43 |
| | |
| A Response to “Fish Tales: A Conversation with ‘The Contemporary Sophist’” | |
| Patricia Bizzell | 68 |
| | |
| “Fish Tales” and the Politics of Anti-Professionalism | |
| John Trimbur | 72 |

bell hooks

bell hooks and the Politics of Literacy: A Conversation
Gary A. Olson 81

bell hooks on Literacy and Teaching: A Response
Joyce Irene Middleton 100

Literacy and Activism: A Response to bell hooks
Tom Fox..... 105

J. Hillis Miller

Rhetoric, Cultural Studies, and the Future of Critical Theory:
A Conversation with J. Hillis Miller
Gary A. Olson 115

On Transforming the English Department:
A Response to J. Hillis Miller
Patricia Harkin 144

Learning About Learning About Deconstruction:
An Epi(tryingtobe)gone
Jasper Neel..... 152

Jane Tompkins

Jane Tompkins and the Politics of Writing, Scholarship, and Pedagogy
Gary A. Olson 161

Encounters with Jane Tompkins
Susan C. Jarratt..... 178

Lit/Comp: A Response to Jane Tompkins
Elizabeth A. Flynn..... 184

Stephen Toulmin

Literary Theory, Philosophy of Science, and Persuasive Discourse:
Thoughts from a Neo-premodernist
Gary A. Olson 193

| | |
|--|-----|
| “The Good Man Speaking Well,” or Business as Usual Arabella Lyon | 220 |
| Novissimum Organum: Phronesis on the Rebound C. Jan Swearingen | 227 |
| Commentary: The Performance Model of Teaching and Scholarship David Bleich | 235 |