

---

Contents

Preface	vii
Go West: An Introduction Joseph A. Boone	3
Part One. Troubling Frontiers: Genders and Generations
1. Toward a Butch-Feminist Retro-Future Sue-Ellen Case	23
2. Apocalypse from Now On Peter Coviello	39
3. An Interview with Cherríe Moraga: Queer Reservations; or, Art, Identity, and Politics in the 1990s Cherríe Moraga with Rosemary Weatherston	64
4. Queer Cut Bodies Morgan Holmes	84
5. Embodying a Transsexual Alphabet Jill St. Jacques	111
6. The Outlaw Sensibility in the Arts: From Drag and Leather to Prose, the Mythology of Stonewall, and a Defense of Stereotypes John Rechy	124
Part Two. Urban Frontiers: Queer Space and Place
7. Pouring On the Past: Video Bars and the Emplacement of Gay Male Desire Richard C. Cante	135
8. Unmasking the Homophile in 1950s Los Angeles: An Archival Record Karin Quimby and Walter L. Williams	166

9. Lesbian Activism in Los Angeles, 1970–1979 Yolanda Retter	196
10. Presenting a Queer (Bath)House Ira Tattelman	222
Part Three. Crossing Frontiers: Activism and Academia
11. Resistance, Representation, and the Subject of Violence: Reading Hothead Paisan Liana Scalettar	261
12. Eating Eve's Plums: On Citation and Hero-Worship Michael Bacchus	278
13. The Queer History and Politics of Lesbian and Gay Studies George Chauncey	298
14. The Final Frontier: A Roundtable Discussion Tania Modleski, moderator	316
Afterwards/Afterwords
15. Back to the Future Richard Meyer	343
16. Visa Denied David Román	350
"Queer Frontiers" Conference Participants	367
Notes on Contributors and Editors	370
Index	375