

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Boston Unitarianism, 1790–1840	1
Religion and Society, 1790–1830	4
Infidelity	17
Evangelical Unitarianism	28
2 Transcendentalism as an Intellectual Movement, 1830–1836	38
Making a Modern Religion	39
The Transcendentalists	44
3 The Transcendentalist Controversy, 1836–1840	70
The Party of Order	72
The Beginnings of Transcendentalism as a Social Movement	93
4 Economy	109
The Problem of a Calling	110
The Economics of Anarchy	117
An Experiment in Practical Christianity	130
The Science of Social Perfection	140
Organizing for the Millennium	150
5 Men, Women, and Families	162
A Transcendentalist Marriage	164
Feminine Friendships	174
Women, Families, and Communitarian Reform	185
Consociate Family Life	197
6 Epilogue: Transcendentalism at Mid-century	207
Appendixes	227
Abbreviations and Short Forms	243
Bibliography	245
Index	259