

Contents

Preface xi

Introduction: Food and Festivity in American Life 1
Theodore C. Humphrey, Sue Samuelson, Lin T. Humphrey

Part I: Family and Friends, Ritual and Renewal

Introduction to Part I

- 1 A Family Celebrates a Birthday: Of Life and Cakes 19
Theodore C. Humphrey
- 2 The Passover Seder: Ritual Dynamics, Foodways, and Family
Folklore 27
Sharon R. Sherman
- 3 A Halloween Brunch: The Affirmation of Group in a Temporary Community 43
Nancy Klavans
- 4 "Soup Night": Community Creation through Foodways 53
Lin T. Humphrey

Part II: Regional Specialities: Work and Play

Introduction to Part II

- 5 "To Toast the Bake": The Johnston Family Clambake 75
Eleanor Wachs

viii Contents

- 6 "Born among the Shells": The Quakers of Allen's Neck and Their Clambake 89
Kathy Neustadt
- 7 Hog Killing in Virginia: Work as Celebration 111
Barbara C. Fertig
- 8 No Smoke? No Fire: Contemporary Hamming the Ol' Fashioned Way 125
Amy E. Skillman
- 9 Roast Beef and Pit-Barbecued Lamb: The Role of Food at Two Utah Homecoming Celebrations 137
Carol Edison
- 10 "It's a Community Deal Here, You Know": Festive Community Life in Rural Oklahoma 153
Theodore C. Humphrey
- 11 "It's All from One Big Pot": Booya as an Expression of Community 169
Anne R. Kaplan

Part III: "Boosterism," Food, and Festive Performance

Introduction to Part III

- 12 Bluegrass Music and Meal-Fried Potatoes: Food, Festival, Community 195
Thomas A. Adler
- 13 Festa Italiana in Hartford, Connecticut: The Pastries, the Pizza, and the People Who "Parla Italiano" 205
Anthony T. Rauche
- 14 "We Always Call It 'Tucson Eat Yourself'": The Role of Food at a Constructed Festival 219
James Griffith

Afterword: Discovering the Symbolism of Food Customs and Events 235
Michael Owen Jones

Appendix: Welcome to Soup Night! Recipes and Philosophy 247
Lin T. Humphrey

Selected Bibliography 271
Michael Owen Jones and Theodore C. Humphrey

List of Contributors 279

Index 283