

CONTENTS

1875-1912 11

1912-1933 11

Goodbye, Babylon 3

Ain't It a Pity, I'm in New York City! 11

Bluesland: Beale Street, Memphis 23

Young and Loose and Full of Juice:

Sam Phillips, Sun Studio, and the Birth of Rock 'n' Roll 33

I'm Going to Graceland 53

Trail of the Hellhounds: Clarksdale's Deep Mississippi Blues 61

Music City, USA: Building the Nashville Sound 93

I'm Going Where There's No Depression: Alternative Country 117

I-64 West: Charlottesville, Lexington, Charleston 137

Country Rolls On: Minstrel Shows, Race, and the Rise of Radio 147

10

Ain't That a Pretty Ole Mountain?
Appalachia, the Carter Family, and Early Country Music 155

11

The Little Old Country General Store
from Lebanon, Tennessee:
Cracker Barrel's Americana 175

12

A Matter of Song!
John Lomax, Lead Belly, Moses Asch, and Folkways Records 183

13

Making Familiar Strange: Harry Smith's Anthology of American Folk Music and the Birth of Smithsonian Folkways 199

14

You Won't Find It So Hot If You
Ain't Got the Do Re Mi:
Woody Guthrie, Ramblin' Jack Elliott, and the Folk Revival of the 1960s 209

15

The New, Weird, Hyphenated America:
Indie-Folk and the Next American Revival 233

Epilogue 255

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY 261

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 266

INDEX 273

