

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
Abbreviations of Frequently Cited Works	xi
PART I. FOUR OVERVIEWS
1. Theoretical Premises	3
2. A Narrative Overview of New England's Literary Development	23
3. Marketplace, Ethos, Practice: The Antebellum Literary Situation	56
4. Neoclassical Continuities: The Early National Era and the New England Literary Tradition	84
PART II. THREE REPRESENTATIVE GENRES
5. New England Poetics: Emerson, Dickinson, and Others	105
6. New England Oratory from Everett to Emerson	137
7. Literary Scripturism	166
PART III. REINVENTING PURITANISM: THE NEW ENGLAND HISTORICAL IMAGINATION
8. The Concept of Puritan Ancestry	193
9. The Politics of Historiography	214
10. Fictionalizing Puritan History: Some Problems and Approaches	239
11. Hawthorne and Stowe as Rival Interpreters of New England Puritanism	261

viii CONTENTS

PART IV. NEW ENGLAND AS A COUNTRY OF THE IMAGINATION: THE SPIRIT OF PLACE

12. The Cultural Landscape in Regional Poetry and Prose	283
13. The Village as Icon	304
14. Lococentrism from Dwight to Thoreau	319
15. Comic Grotesque	335
16. Provincial Gothic: Hawthorne, Stoddard, and Others	351
Postscript	371
Appendix. Vital Statistics: A Quantitative Analysis of Authorship as a Profession in New England	375
Notes	399
Index	499