

Contents

Introduction	British-American Literature: Paradoxical Constitutions, Civil Wars	1
1	The Art of Sinking: Alexander Pope and Mather Byles	17
2	Topsy-Turvy Neoclassicism: The Connecticut Wits	40
3	From Allegory to Exchange: Richardson and Franklin	70
4	The Culture of Sensibility: Jefferson, Sterne, and Burke	92
5	“Another World Must Be Unfurled”: Jane Austen and America	117
6	Burlesques of Civility: Washington Irving	142
7	Perverse Reflections: Hawthorne and Trollope	164
Conclusion	Transatlantic Perspectives: Poe and Equiano	187
Notes		197
Works Cited		231
Index		255
Acknowledgments		261