

Contents

Introduction	1
X ONE. THE SLAVE-NARRATIVE PERIOD (CA. 1831-1895)
X Chapter 1. Point of View in the Slave Narratives	11
X Chapter 2. Language and the Slave Experience	32
X Chapter 3. The White Influence	47
X Chapter 4. Frederick Douglass: Language as a Weapon	65
TWO. THE PERIOD OF SEARCH (CA. 1901-1961)
Chapter 5. In Search of a Unified Self	93
Chapter 6. In Search of a Social Role	108
Chapter 7. In Search of a Voice	130
Chapter 8. Richard Wright	155
THREE. THE PERIOD OF REBIRTH (SINCE 1961)
Chapter 9. James Baldwin: The Growth of a New Radicalism	183
Chapter 10. Autobiographies of Black Women: Ida Wells, Maya Angelou, Anne Moody	201

viii CONTENTS

Chapter 11. Inside History: The Revolutionary Self	218
Chapter 12. The Language of Black Satire	238
Chapter 13. History as Subjective Experience	256
Conclusion	284
Notes	289
Bibliography	297
Index	301