

Table of Contents

Michel DELVILLE and Christine PAGNOULLE
Introduction 9

PART I THE EVERYDAY BLUES

Richard QUINN
Black Power, Black Arts, and the Ethic of the Ensemble 19

Corinne ANDERSEN
“I Dance Wildly inside Myself:” Music as Metaphor
for Transculturation in Zora Neale Hurston’s
Autoethnographic Oeuvre..... 45

Samantha PINTO
Feminist Subjectivity and the Everyday Blues:
The Casual Erotics of Harryette Mullen..... 59

PART II RHYTHM ‘N’ WORDS

Christophe DEN TANDT
Staccato, Swivel and Glide:
A Poetics of Early Rock ‘n’ Roll Lyrics..... 79

Alex CSZISAR
Reading Coolidge Speaking while not Speaking..... 93

Nick SELBY
Embodied Music:
Robert Creeley, Hilda Morley and a Sense of Measure 107

Tim WOODS
“Art tracking music:” Louis Zukofsky’s Po/Ethics of Music..... 121

PART III
MUSICAL SETTINGS

| | |
|---|-----|
| Antoine CAZÉ | |
| “Pas de Deux:” Dusapin Sings/Stein to Be Sung | 141 |
| Stephen CAIN | |
| The Poetics of R. Murray Schafer | 155 |
| Erik ULMAN | |
| Olson and Musical Composition | 175 |
| Notes on Contributors..... | 189 |