

Contents

Acknowledgments ~ ix

Introduction ~ xi

Chapter 1. 1889

- Frederick J. Loudin's Fisk Jubilee Singers and Their Australasian Auditors, 1886–1889 ~ 3
 - “Same”—The Maori and the Fisk Jubilee Singers ~ 12
 - Australasian Music Appreciation ~ 13
 - Minstrelsy and Loudin's Fisk Jubilee Singers ~ 19
 - The Slippery Slope of Variety and Comedy ~ 21
 - Mean Judge Williams ~ 24
- A “Black Patti” for the Ages: The Tennessee Jubilee Singers and Matilda Sissieretta Jones, 1889–1891 ~ 27
- Other “Colored Pattis” and “Queens of Song,” 1889 ~ 40
- Other Jubilee Singers, 1889 ~ 42
- Rev. Marshall W. Taylor ~ 45
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1889 ~ 47
- The Minstrel Profession ~ 60
- Charles B. Hicks Abroad, 1889–1895 ~ 60
- McCabe and Young's Minstrels, 1889–1892 ~ 65

Chapter 2. 1890

- Loudin's Fisk Jubilee Singers Come Home ~ 73
- Jubilee Singers on the Home Front, 1890 ~ 86
- "A Woman with a Mission": Madame Marie Selika, 1890 ~ 89
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1890 ~ 91
- African American Minstrel Companies in the South ~ 105
- Richards and Pringle's Original Georgia Minstrels and Billy Kersands, 1889–1895 ~ 106
- Cleveland's Colored Minstrels, Season of 1890–1891 ~ 110
- Mahara's Minstrels, 1892–1895 ~ 115
- The Legend of Orpheus McAdoo, 1890–1900 ~ 119

Chapter 3. 1891

- New Departures in African American Minstrelsy ~ 145
 - William Foote's Afro-American Specialty Company ~ 146
 - Sam T. Jack's Creole Burlesque Company ~ 151
- Compromises in Jubilee Singing: Thearle's Nashville Students, Wright's Nashville Students, and the Canadian Jubilee Singers ~ 170
 - The Nashville Students ~ 170
 - The Canadian Jubilee Singers ~ 176
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1891 ~ 177
- The Texarkana Minstrel Company and the Jefferson Davis Monument Fund: "The Thing Is Unnatural" ~ 198
- Two Southern Brass Bands in New York City: Becker's Brass Band from Kentucky and the Onward Brass Band from Louisiana ~ 200
- "Rags" in Tennesseetown, 1891 ~ 201

Chapter 4. 1892

- Cake Walks in Context ~ 205
- Toward a Black National Anthem: "John Brown's Body" ~ 211
- "Colored Pattis" and "Queens of Song," 1892 ~ 214
- Lizzie Pugh Dugan: "God Never Gave a Human a More Beautiful Voice" ~ 218
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1892 ~ 220
- Barber-Musicians ~ 244
- Mandolin Clubs ~ 247
- W. P. Dabney ~ 251
- "Monarchs of the Light Guitar" ~ 254
- "A Model of Community Service": John W. Johnson and the Detroit City Band ~ 255
- The Excelsior Reed and Brass Band of Cleveland, Ohio ~ 262
- Benjamin L. Shook: A Community-Based Musician ~ 265

Chapter 5. 1893

- The Dvorák Statement—"As Great as a Beethoven Theme" ~ 273
- Black Music in the White City: African Americans and the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition ~ 276
 - Colored Folks Day ~ 279
 - The Midway Plaisance and the Dahomean Village ~ 284
 - Conclusion ~ 294
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1893 ~ 296
- "Folk-Lore and Ethnology," "Coonjine" and "Hully-Gully" ~ 308
- The "African Prince" Phenomenon, 1891–1895 ~ 312

- Prof. Tope Brown: “Terpsichorean Soiree” ~ 315
- Blind Boone: “Clear out of Sight” ~ 318

Chapter 6. 1894

- “Black and White” Minstrelsy ~ 325
- “Darkest America”: Al G. Field’s Real Negro Minstrels ~ 331
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1894 ~ 335
- A Tour of Conquest and Melody: Prof. W. H. Councill and the Alabama State Normal School Quartette ~ 351
- That Barbershop Chord ~ 357
- Quartets to the Fore: The South Before the War Company and Its Plantation Pretenders, 1892–1895 ~ 360
- A Low and Narrow Pathway of Opportunity in the Circus Sideshow “Colored Annex,” 1891–1895 ~ 373
- Dime Museums ~ 380

Chapter 7. 1895

- “Black America” ~ 391
- Brass Bands in Kansas ~ 395
- “Kid Bands” in Kansas: The John Brown Juvenile Band and N. Clark Smith’s Pickaninny Band ~ 403
- “In Old Kentucky” ~ 406
- “The Fake and His Orphans”: Sherwood’s Youth Missionary Band, 1889–1895 ~ 409
- Selected, Annotated Chronology of Music-Related Citations, 1895 ~ 419
- From the Criterion Quartet to “In Old Tennessee”: The Rise of Ernest Hogan, 1889–1895 ~ 433

- The Black Patti Troubadours and Madame C. C. Smith, “the Patti of Topeka” ~ 438
- The Whitman Sisters ~ 440
- “A Little ‘Ragging’”: The Emergence of Ragtime in the Land of John Brown ~ 443
- Preserving the Spiritual Legacy: The Last Days of Frederick J. Loudin ~ 455

Appendix 1: Repertoire of the Tennessee Jubilee Singers, 1888–1889 ~ 463

Appendix 2: Personnel Listings of Orpheus M. McAdoo’s and M. B. Curtis’s Troupes in Australia, 1899–1900 ~ 463

Appendix 3: Repertoire of McAdoo’s Virginia Concert Company and Jubilee Singers, 1892–1893 ~ 464

Appendix 4: Roster of the Detroit City Band, 1891–1892 ~ 465

Notes ~ 467

Index ~ 485