

Contents

Introduction. Tropical Trees:
Towards a Hippikat Poetics 1

Part I. Epic Impulses/Narratives of Ancestry

1. Imperial Mother Wit, Gumbo Erotics:
From Sunjata to The Souls of Black Folk 25
2. Of Root Figures and Buggy Jiving:
Toomer, Hurston, and Ellison 48
3. Myth-making, Mother-child-ness, and Epic Renamings:
Malcolm X, Kunta Kinte, and Milkman Dead 68

Part II. Bound Cultures/The Creolization of Dixie

4. "Two Heads Fighting":
African Roots, Geechee/Gombo Tales 93
5. Creole Self-Fashioning:
Joel Chandler Harris's "Other Fellow" 114
6. Searching for Spiritual Soil:
Milk Bonds and the "Maumer Tongue" 130

Part III. Shadows of Africans/Gothic Representations

7. The Spears of the Party of the Merciful:
Senegambian Muslims, Scriptural Mercy, and Plantation Slavery 157
8. Babo and Bras Coupé:
Malign Machinations, Gothic Plots 181
9. "Never Once but Like Ripples":
On Boomeranging Trumps, Rememory, and the Novel as Medium 203

Notes 231

Works Cited 241

Index 259