

* CONTENTS *

Preface ix
Author's Note xi

PART 1

Black Philosophy: Definitions and Resources . . . 3
A. Philosophy as the Pursuit of The Feminine Principle
 Sorcerer, Superman, and Victim:
 The Hero as Don Juan 13
B. Philosophy as the Ressurrection of the Bicameral
 Mind and as Dream-State Exploration
 The Physiology of Black Philosophy:
 Split-Brain, Reptile Brain, and the
 Visionary Experience 33
C. Philosophy as the Reaffirmation of the
 Hermetic Tradition
 Modern Physics and African Religion and
 Philosophy: The Hermetic Lattice 53

PART 2

Educational Applications and Implications
 Beyond Death: A Curriculum Module 87

PART 3

Appendices 103
Annotated Bibliography 119

* ILLUSTRATIONS *

1.	Archetype of the Great Mother	19
2.	Dichotomies of Conscious Functions	40
3.	Human Brain	43
4.	Soul Transmigration (Bantu)	46
5.	The Pre-Renaissance and Contemporary Views of the World	91
6.	The Tao	95