

Contents

|                         |                                                                                                                                                         |    |
|-------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| MARLENE NADLE           | The View from the Front of the BusThe March on Washington: August 1963 . . . . .                                                             | I  |
| RUSSELL BAKER           | Capital Is Occupied by a Gentle Army"Pleased with what they had done": August 1963 . . . . .                                                 | 7  |
| E. W. KENWORTHY         | 200,000 March for Civil Rights inOrderly Washington Rally; President Sees Gain for Negro"With the spirit of love": August 1963 . . . . . | 12 |
| CLAUDE SITTON           | Birmingham Bomb Kills 4 Negro Girlsin Church; Riots Flare; 2 Boys SlainThe Birmingham Church Bombing: September 1963 . . . . .           | 19 |
| JAMES D. WILLIAMS       | First of 4 Birmingham Bomb VictimsIs BuriedAt Carole Robertson's Funeral: September 1963 . . . . .                                       | 23 |
| KARL FLEMING            | Birmingham: "My God, You're NotEven Safe in Church""Who can remain silent?": September 1963 . . . . .                                    | 26 |
| RUTH AND EDWARD BRECHER | The Military's Limited WarAgainst Segregation"A leadership role": September 1963 . . . . .                                               | 34 |
| HOWARD ZINN             | The Battle-Scarred Youngsters"On the front lines": August 1962–October 1963 . . . . .                                                        | 48 |
| MURRAY KEMPTON          | Gloria, GloriaGloria Richardson: November 1963 . . . . .                                                                                     | 60 |
| MICHAEL THELWELL        | The August 28th March on Washington"On the tortuous road": May–November 1963 . . . . .                                                       | 67 |
| HUNTER S. THOMPSON      | A Southern City withNorthern ProblemsLouisville: December 1963 . . . . .                                                                 | 86 |
| MARC CRAWFORD           | The Ominous Malcolm X Exits fromthe Muslims"Not without a fight": March 1964 . . . . .                                                   | 96 |

|                       |                                                                                                                                     |     |
|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| JERRY DEMUTH          | Tired of Being Sick and TiredFannie Lou Hamer: May 1964 . . . . .                                                        | 99  |
| JOHN HERBERS          | Martin Luther King and 17 Others JailedTrying To Integrate St. Augustine RestaurantSt. Augustine: May 1964 . . . . . | 107 |
| PETER DE LISSOVOY     | Gambler's Choice in GeorgiaC. B. King for Congress: June 1964 . . . . .                                                  | 110 |
| CLAUDE SITTON         | 3 in Rights Drive Reported MissingCheney, Goodman, Schwerner: June 1964 . . . . .                                        | 120 |
| SNOW JAMES            | "Seeing St. Aug." Proves Exciting"Strange sights and sounds": June 1964 . . . . .                                        | 123 |
| MARTIN MAYER          | The Lone Wolf of Civil RightsBayard Rustin: July 1964 . . . . .                                                          | 128 |
| LEZ EDMOND            | Harlem Diary"The long, hot summer": July 1964 . . . . .                                                                  | 138 |
| WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE | from Three Lives for MississippiThe Search for the Missing: June-August 1964 . . . . .                                   | 157 |
| NAN ROBERTSON         | Mississippian Relates Struggle of Negroin Voter Registration"Got to be a change": August 1964 . . . . .              | 176 |
| CHARLES M. SHERROD    | Mississippi at Atlantic CityThe Democratic National Convention: August 1964 . . . . .                                    | 179 |
| JEREMIAH S. GUTMAN    | Oktibbeha County, Mississippi"Mississippi justice": August 1965 . . . . .                                                | 187 |
| CHRISTOPHER S. WREN   | Personal Terror in Mississippi"Afraid of getting shot?": September 1964 . . . . .                                        | 194 |
| JOHN HERSEY           | A Life for a Vote"The Negroes intend to register":April 1963-September 1964 . . . . .                               | 197 |
| ALICE LAKE            | Last Summer in MississippiMississippi Summer Project: June-October 1964 . . . . .                                        | 230 |
| MICHAEL DURHAM        | Ollie McClung's Big Decision"The right to refuse service": October 1964 . . . . .                                        | 251 |
| LOUIS E. LOMAX        | Georgia Boy Goes HomeA Native Son Returns to Valdosta: November 1964 . . . . .                                           | 255 |

|                                                                                                                                                          |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| PETER DE LISSOVOY "This Little Light . . .""Mixin' in South Georgia": July–November 1964 . . . . .                                                   | 270 |
| DAVID NEVIN A Strange, Tight Little Town,Loath to Admit ComplicityPhiladelphia, Mississippi: December 1964 . . . . .                      | 280 |
| JAMES FARMER from A Southern TalePlaquemine, Louisiana: 1963–1965 . . . . .                                                            | 285 |
| MARLENE NADLE Malcolm X: The Complexity ofa Man in the Jungle"Willing to go all the way": February 1965 . . . . .                                | 299 |
| PETER KIHSS Malcolm X Shot to Death at Rally HereAt the Audubon Ballroom: February 1965 . . . . .                                             | 309 |
| GORDON PARKS "I Was a Zombie Then—LikeAll Muslims, I Was Hypnotized""A time for martyrs": February 1965 . . . . .                                | 316 |
| ROY REED Alabama Police Use Gas and ClubsTo Rout NegroesAcross Pettus Bridge: March 1965 . . . . .                                        | 322 |
| GEORGE B. LEONARD Midnight Plane to AlabamaPilgrimage to Selma: March 1965 . . . . .                                                          | 328 |
| ANDREW KOPKIND Selma: "Ain't Gonna Let NobodyTurn Me 'Round""The decision to march": March 1965 . . . . .                                        | 339 |
| TOM WICKER Johnson Urges Congress at Joint SessionTo Pass Law Insuring Negro VoteThe President Addresses the Nation: March 1965 . . . . . | 345 |
| PAUL GOOD ". . . It Was Worth the Boy's Dying"Jimmie Lee Jackson: March 1965 . . . . .                                                        | 353 |
| ELIZABETH HARDWICK Selma, Alabama:The Charms of Goodness"A hole so deep": March 1965 . . . . .                                                   | 356 |
| JIMMY BRESLIN Changing the South"This here thing is a revolution": March 1965 . . . . .                                                              | 361 |
| RENATA ADLER Letter from SelmaOn the Road: March 1965 . . . . .                                                                               | 367 |

|                        |                                                                                      |     |
|------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| JOHN BEECHER           | McComb, Mississippi                                                                  |     |
|                        | "If you are a Negro": May 1965                                                | 395 |
| HAYNES JOHNSON         | Selma Revisited: 4 Months AfterTheir "Finest Hour" Rights Forces Are in Disarray |     |
|                        | "Bewildered and disillusioned": July 1965                                     | 406 |
| ART BERMAN             | Eight Men Slain; Guard Moves In                                                      |     |
|                        | "A city on fire": Los Angeles, August 1965                                    | 414 |
| ROBERT RICHARDSON      | "Burn, Baby, Burn!"                                                                  |     |
|                        | Eyewitness in Watts: August 1965                                              | 421 |
| JERRY FARBER           | August, 1965                                                                         |     |
|                        | "A lot of people were smiling": August 1965                                   | 428 |
| HAMILTON BIMS          | Deacons for Defense                                                                  |     |
|                        | "Leave the protecting to us": September 1965                                  | 439 |
| ROBERT COLES           | Bussing in Boston                                                                    |     |
|                        | "Out of the ghetto": 1964-1965                                                | 445 |
| AUGUST MEIER           | On the Role of Martin Luther King                                                    |     |
|                        | The "Conservative Militant": 1965                                             | 453 |
| CALVIN C. HERNTON      | And You, Too, Sidney Poitier!                                                        |     |
|                        | Sex and Racism in Films: 1966                                                 | 465 |
| MIKE THELWELL          | Fish Are Jumping an' the Cotton Is High:Notes from the Mississippi Delta         |     |
|                        | "The Heart of Dixie": 1965-1966                                               | 476 |
| JACK NELSON            | 2 Veteran Rights Leaders Ousted by SNCC                                              |     |
|                        | "Further adrift from the mainstream": May 1966                                | 491 |
| PAUL GOOD              | The Meredith March                                                                   |     |
|                        | "One year deeper into frustration": June-July 1966                            | 495 |
| ROBERT ANALAVAGE       | Which Way in Grenada?                                                                |     |
|                        | "When the marchers departed": August 1966                                     | 516 |
| JAMES H. MEREDITH      | Big Changes Are Coming                                                               |     |
|                        | "Mississippi is everywhere": June-August 1966                                 | 520 |
| ROBERT E. ANDERSON JR. | Welfare in Mississippi:                                                              |     |
|                        | "Tradition" vs. Title VI                                                             |     |
|                        | "Drive them out of the state": February 1967                                  | 533 |
| BOB FLETCHER           | We're Gonna Rule                                                                     |     |
|                        | Sunflower County, Mississippi: May 1967                                       | 545 |

|                                                                                                                                                             |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| GORDON PARKS Whip of Black PowerStokely Carmichael: May 1967 . . . . .                                                                    | 552 |
| DAVID HALBERSTAM The Second Coming ofMartin Luther King"New Radicalism": April-May 1967 . . . . .                                     | 563 |
| GEORGE BARNER "We Ain't Taking No More"Newark Riots: July 1967 . . . . .                                                                  | 589 |
| DALE WITTNER The Killing of Billy Furr, Caughtin the Act of Looting Beer"When the police treat us like people": Newark, July 1967 . . | 593 |
| SANDRA A. WEST Riot!—A Negro Resident's Story"Sights I never dreamed possible": Detroit, July 1967 . . . . .                              | 596 |
| CAROL SCHMIDT The White Community AsksRepeatedly, "Why?""How can we explain?": July 1967 . . . . .                                    | 598 |
| JIMMY BRESLIN Breslin on Riot: Death, Laughter,but No SanityDetroit: July 1967 . . . . .                                              | 602 |
| JON LOWELL Guerilla War Rips 12th"Riot-blackened streets": July 1967 . . . . .                                                            | 607 |
| BOB CLARK Nightmare JourneyA photo-journalist in Detroit: July 1967 . . . . .                                                             | 611 |
| SOL STERN The Call of the Black Panthers"Revolutionary fervor": August 1967 . . . . .                                                     | 624 |
| CALVIN TRILLIN U.S. Letter: ClevelandThe Carl Stokes Campaign: October 1967 . . . . .                                                     | 637 |
| EARL CALDWELL Martin Luther King Is Slainin MemphisAt the Lorraine Motel: April 1968 . . . . .                                        | 645 |
| GARRY WILLS Martin Luther King Is Still on the Case!"A calm new face of power": April 1968 . . . . .                                      | 651 |
| JOAN DIDION Black PantherHuey Newton: May 1968 . . . . .                                                                                  | 676 |
| PAUL GOOD "No Man Can Fill Dr. King's Shoes"—But Abernathy TriesRalph Abernathy: May 1968 . . . . .                                   | 681 |

---

|                     |                                                                  |     |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| GILBERT MOORE       | from A Special Rage                                       |     |
|                     | The Black Panther Party: June 1968 . . . . .              | 699 |
| PAT WATTERS         | "Keep on A-walking, Children"                                    |     |
|                     | The Poor People's Campaign: April-June 1968 . . . . .     | 706 |
| STEVE VAN EVERA     | Marks After the Campaign                                         |     |
|                     | After the demonstration: August 1968 . . . . .            | 756 |
| BOB LABAREE         | Fairfield Never Had a Negro Official—                            |     |
|                     | Until Last Month, When It Elected Six                            |     |
|                     | "People to the polls": September 1968 . . . . .           | 759 |
| C. GERALD FRASER    | S.N.C.C. in Decline                                              |     |
|                     | After 8 Years in Lead                                            |     |
|                     | "So many factions": October 1968 . . . . .                | 764 |
| RICHARD LEVINE      | Jesse Jackson: Heir to Dr. King?                                 |     |
|                     | Operation Breadbasket: December 1968 . . . . .            | 770 |
| TOM WOLFE           | from Mau-Mauing the Flak Catchers                         |     |
|                     | San Francisco: 1968-1969 . . . . .                        | 792 |
| WILLIE MORRIS       | from Yazoo: Integration in a                              |     |
|                     | Deep-Southern Town                                               |     |
|                     | "Holding our breath": October 1969-January 1970 . . . . . | 809 |
| RICHARD J. MARGOLIS | The Two Nations at                                               |     |
|                     | Wesleyan University                                              |     |
|                     | At the Malcolm X House: January 1970 . . . . .            | 819 |
| KARL FLEMING        | The South Revisited After                                        |     |
|                     | a Momentous Decade                                               |     |
|                     | A Reporter Looks Back: August 1970 . . . . .              | 838 |
| NORA SAYRE          | The Revolutionary People's                                       |     |
|                     | Constitutional Convention                                        |     |
|                     | Black Panthers and White Radicals:                        |     |
|                     | September-November 1970 . . . . .                         | 847 |
| MARSHALL FRADY      | Discovering One Another in a                                     |     |
|                     | Georgia Town                                                     |     |
|                     | Americus, Georgia: November 1970-February 1971 . . . . .  | 857 |
| ALICE WALKER        | Staying Home in Mississippi                                      |     |
|                     | "It will be My Choice": August 1973 . . . . .             | 871 |

CONTENTS

xv

|                                       |     |
|---------------------------------------|-----|
| Chronology 1941-1973 . . . . . | 885 |
| Biographical Notes . . . . .   | 908 |
| Note on the Texts . . . . .    | 935 |
| Notes . . . . .                | 942 |
| Index . . . . .                | 965 |