

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Figures and Tables	vi
Forewords	viii
Allan E. Goodman, President and CEO, IIE
Bill Gertz, President and CEO, AIFS
Introduction	xi
Jamil Salmi, World Bank
Chapter 1: The “Knowledge Society” in the Middle East	1
Daniel Kirk, Gulf Comparative Education Society
Chapter 2: Different Emirates, Different Models: Creating Global Institutions in the Gulf States	7
Spencer Witte, Ishtirak
Chapter 3: Higher Education Creates Higher Expectations in Jordan: Combating the Loss of the Kingdom’s Intellectual Wealth	27
Robert G. Ayan Jr., Cambridge Advisors LLC
Chapter 4: Strategic Planning in Higher Education in the Middle East: The Case of Non-Gulf Countries	43
Hana A. El-Ghali, Qianyi Chen and John L. Yeager, University of Pittsburgh
Chapter 5: The Role of Internationalization in Women’s Education in the Middle East	61
Haifa Reda Jamal Al-Lail, Effat University
Chapter 6: Promoting U.S.–Middle Eastern Cultural Understanding through Youth Exchange	73
Sherifa M.B.E. Fayez, AFS Egypt
Dan Prinzing, Idaho Human Rights Education Center
Chapter 7: Advancing U.S. Study Abroad in the Arab World	87
Jerome Bookin-Weiner, AMIDEAST
Ahmad Majdoubeh, University of Jordan
Chapter 8: The U.S. Arabic Distance Learning Network: An Effort to Expand Instruction in Less Commonly Taught Languages	99
Norman J. Peterson and Yvonne M. Rudman, Montana State University

Appendices

IIE's Activities in the MENA Region Elizabeth Khalifa, IIE/MENA Regional Center Daniel Obst, IIE	113
Classifying Higher Education Institutions in the MENA Region: A Pilot Project Rajika Bhandari and Robert Gutierrez, IIE	121
Historical Trends in Student Mobility from the Middle East to the United States Patricia Chow, IIE Shepherd Laughlin	125
About the Contributors	129
IIE Information and Resources	135
IIE Web Resources	137
Programs of the AIFS Foundation	139
Programs of the American Institute For Foreign Study	139