
Contents

Foreword	vii
I Reason, Existence, and Choice	1
Reason and Existence: Or, What Spinoza was Doing up in his Room
ASHER MOORE	3
A Mess of Existentialist Pottage: The Existentialist Phenomenology of William Earle
JAMES M. EDIE	19
The Not-So-Private Pleasures of William Earle
ROBERT C. SCHARFF	29
II Philosophical Vision, the Transcendental, and the Mystical	39
On Clarity, Integrity, and Philosophical Vision
PHILIP GRIER	41
On the Possibility of Transcendental Philosophy
J.N. MOHANTY	56
The Life of Spirit
WILLIAM J. LANGAN	68
III Art, Ontology, and Consciousness	93
Some Reflections on Spinoza's Ethics As Edifying Ontology
FORREST WILLIAMS	95
Nietzsche as the Last Philosopher of Art
ERICH HELLER	111

	Sartre's Theory of Consciousness and the Zen Doctrine of No Mind
	WILLIAM BOSSART	126
IV	Morality and War, Surrealism and Memory	151
	Earle's "Rejection" of Morality
	HUGH MERCER CURTLER	153
	On the Indefensibility of War
	ERROL E. HARRIS	163
	Surrealism and the Movies: From A to Miss Zed
	WILLIAM FOWKES	172
	Earle on Memory and the Past
	EDWARD S. CASEY	179
	Afterword by William Earle	193
	Selected Bibliography of Writings by William Earle	211
	Contributors Notes	215