

W. D. Howells

AND ART IN HIS TIME

CLARA MARBURG KIRK

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY PRESS New Brunswick, N.J.

Contents

Preface • vii

Introduction • xi

PART ONE

1 • Education in Art • 3

2 • Artists in Italy • 19

3 • Toward a Theory of Aesthetics • 32

4 • Art and the Atlantic Monthly • 48

PART TWO

1 • Writers, Artists, and Publishers • 65

2 • Italy Revisited • 80

- 3 • Taste and Class in Boston • 99
- 4 • The Artist and the Novelist in New York • 117

PART THREE

- 1 • Criticism and Fiction—and Art • 137
- 2 • William Powell Frith, A Novelist's Painter • 151
- 3 • Whistler v. Ruskin: Howells' View • 168
- 4 • Art and Society • 185

PART FOUR

- 1 • Altruria in Chicago • 203
- 2 • Plutocratic New York • 217
- 3 • The Philistine and the Artist • 235
- 4 • On Parnassus • 253

Epilogue • 269

Appendix I • *Howells on the French and Italian
Notebooks of Nathaniel Hawthorne* • 277

Appendix II • *Howells' Essay,
"A Sennight of the Centennial"* • 283

Appendix III • Howells and Justine McCarthy on the Tavern Club • 309

Appendix IV • *Howells' View of Arrogance
Toward Workmen* • 313

Appendix V • *Professor Charles Eliot Norton's Annual
Ashfield Dinner of 1907* • 317

Appendix VI • Howells' Obituary by Alexander D. Noyes • 323

Index • 327