

CONTENTS

Foreword by Sadako Ogata	ix
List of abbreviations	xi
Contributors	xiii
List of illustrations	xix
 Introduction	 1
Mary Martin and Taylor Owen
 PART I
Concepts of human security	15
 1 Birth of a discourse	 17
Amartya Sen
 2 Human security: from definitions to investigating a discourse	 28
Des Gasper
 3 In defense of the broad view of human security	 43
Shahrbano Tadjbakhsh
 4 Human security thresholds	 58
Taylor Owen
 5 Human security: political authority in a global era	 65
Mary Kaldor
 6 Critical perspectives on human security	 76
Keith Krause

7	The siren song of human security Ryerson Christie	94
8	Why human security? The case for resilience in an urban century Peter H. Liotta and Aybüke Bilgin	109
PART II
	Human security applications	123
9	Violent conflict and the individual security dilemma Mient Jan Faber and Martijn Dekker	125
10	Security and development: context specific approaches to human insecurity Richard Jolly	139
11	Human security in the R2P era Lloyd Axworthy	149
12	Human security and war Jennifer Leaning	159
13	Human security and natural disasters Dorothea Hilhorst, Alpaslan Özerdem and Erin Michelle Crocetti	174
14	Food and human security Robert Bailey	188
15	Navigating the 'national security' barrier: a human security agenda for arms control in the twenty-first century Deepayan Basu Ray	197
16	Adjusting the paradigm: a human security framework for combating terrorism Cindy R. Jebb and Andrew A. Gallo	210
PART III
	Human security actors	223
17	The United Nations and human security: between solidarism and pluralism Edward Newman	225
18	Japan and networked human security Yukio Takasu	239

19	The European Union and human security: the making of a global security actor Javier Solana	251
20	The pan-Africanization of human security Thomas Kwasi Tieku	260
21	Human security and East Asia Paul Evans	272
PART IV
	Human security tools	283
22	An economist's perspective on human security Syed Mansoob Murshed	285
23	From concept to method: the challenge of a human security methodology Mary Martin and Denisa Kostovicova	297
24	Human security mapping Taylor Owen	308
25	Human security: idea, policy and law Gerd Oberleitner	319
	Conclusion Taylor Owen and Mary Martin	331
	Index	335