

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction: Are there National Traditions in Philosophy?	i
1 The Philosophy of the German Enlightenment: Leibniz and Kant	17
2 The German Enlightenment: Lessing, Herder and Weimar	37
3 From Enlightenment to Romanticism: German Idealism	43
4 German Idealism: Fichte, Schelling and Hegel	50
5 The Aftermath of German Idealism: (1) Schopenhauer and Nietzsche	77
6 The Aftermath of German Idealism: (2) Feuerbach and Marx	100
7 Freud	111
8 Linguistic Philosophy: Frege, the Vienna Circle, Wittgenstein and Diethey	120
9 From Essentialism to Existentialism: Husserl, the Gestaltists and Heidegger	132
10 Jaspers	141
11 One-Dimensional Man and the Principle of Hope	155

THE GERMAN TRADITION IN PHILOSOPHY

12	The Contribution of the German Tradition in Philosophy	169
	References	189
	Bibliography	193
	Index	199