

Contents

1.	WHAT IS KNOWLEDGE?	i
	Three Senses of 'Know'	i
	Analysis and Meaning	3
	On Analysis	4
	Semantics and Philosophical Analysis	5
	The Form and Objectives of an Analysis of Knowledge	7
	The Analysis of Knowledge	9
	A Truth Condition	9
	A Belief Condition	12
	A Justification Condition	13
	Justification and Basic Beliefs	14
	A Counterexample	18
	A Fourth Condition: Justification without Falsity	20
	A Final Analysis of Knowledge	21
2.	TRUTH AND KNOWLEDGE	24
	Knowledge and the Absolute Theory of Truth	24
	Truth and Levels of Language	25
	Knowledge and the Semantic Theory of Truth	27
	Objections to the Semantic Theory of Truth	28
	A Modification of the Semantic Theory of Truth	30
	Knowledge and the Elimination of Truth	33
	The Elimination of Truth	36
	Truth, Knowledge, and Meaning	37
	Meanings, Propositions, and Truth	38
	Other Theories of Truth: The Correspondence Theory	42
	The Coherence Theory of Truth	45
	Truth and Knowledge: An Objection	48
3.	BELIEF AND KNOWLEDGE	49
	The Consistency of Knowledge and Belief	49
	'I Know' as a Performative Utterance	52
	Knowing but Believing one does not	55
	A Proof that Knowledge Implies Belief	58
	An Objection: Remembrance without Belief	59
	Borderline Cases of Knowledge	61

Knowledge and Conviction	63
The Requirement of Conviction	66
Knowledge without Conviction: Objections and Replies	69
Memory without Knowledge	72
4. JUSTIFICATION AND KNOWLEDGE: THE FOUNDATION THEORY (I)	75
Two Theories of Justification: Foundation and Coherence	76
The Foundation Theory	76
The Foundation as a Guarantee of Truth	78
Incorrigible Belief	80
A Definition of Incorrigibility	81
A Counterexample	82
An Amended Definition of Incorrigibility	83
Alleged Examples of the Incorrigible	85
The Corrigibility of Thought	87
The Corrigibility of Beliefs about Sensations	91
Armstrong's Argument	91
A Reply to Armstrong	92
Sensations and Incorrigibility: A Counterexample	95
Other Alleged Counterexamples	96
Some Objections	97
5. CORRIGIBLE JUSTIFICATION: THE FOUNDATION THEORY (II)	101
Complete Justification and Independent Information	102
The Inadequacy of Common Sense	105
An Objection: Skill or Information?	106
Chisholm and the Non-comparative Use of Words	108
Semantics and Justification	110
Meaning and Epistemic Principles	111
Meaning and Scepticism	114
Self-justification and Necessary Truth	119
6. JUSTIFICATION AND EVIDENCE: THE FOUNDATION THEORY (III)	122
How Justification is based on Evidence	122
Justification as a Logical Guarantee of Truth	126
Phenomenalism	127
Analytically Reductive Theories	129
Meaning and Inductive Justification	131
Probability and Justification	135

CONTENTS

xiii

Three Concepts of Probability	136
Frequencies and Justification	137
Logical Probabilities and Justification	138
Subjective Probability and Justification	140
Probability, Truth, and General Statements	143
Justification and a Probability of One	144
Decision Theory and the Objective of Truth	146
Probability and Basic Beliefs	150
Summary of the Argument Concerning the Foundation Theory	151
 7. SYSTEMATIC JUSTIFICATION (I): THE EXPLANATORY COHERENCE THEORY	 154
The Traditional Answer: Coherence as Entailment	157
Coherence as Explanation	159
On the Justification of What is Explained	161
Explanatory Coherence and Justification: An Analysis	162
Explanatory Coherence	163
On Explanation	165
An Epistemic Analysis of Explanation	167
Explanation as a Logical Relation	168
Objections to Coherence as Explanation	170
Explanatory Coherence and Observation Statements	171
Observation Statements and Conditioned Responses	172
Observation and Natural Selection	173
An Ethical Analogy	174
Self-explanatory Beliefs	175
Self-explanation: An Evaluation	176
Justification without Explanation: Some Examples	178
Some Final Objections: Weak Explanations and Competing Systems	180
Simplicity and Conservation	182
Summary	184
 8. SYSTEMATIC JUSTIFICATION (II): TRUTH AND COHERENCE	 187
The Circle of Belief	187
The Doxastic System and Complete Justification	189
Coherence and the Chance of Truth	190
Justification and Competition	192
An Analysis of Complete Justification	197
Comparison with the Foundation Theory	198

The Explanation Theory	200
The Rationality of Completely Justified Belief	201
Consistency	202
Expected Utility	204
The Value of Truth and Error	206
Complete Justification and Positive Value	207
Objections and Replies	208
Summary	212
The Problem of Truth	213
9. SYSTEMATIC JUSTIFICATION (III): THE FOURTH CONDITION OF KNOWLEDGE	215
The Gettier Example	215
Some Inadequate Solutions	218
A Non-inferential Example	218
A Harmless Error	219
The Knowledge of Falsity	220
The Grabit Example	221
The Newspaper Example	222
A Solution: Verific Alternatives	223
Perception and Inference	226
Knowing that We Know	228
The Conditionality of Chance	232
Summary	234
10. METAPHYSICAL SPECULATIONS: SCEPTICISM AND MATERIALISM	236
Scepticism and Agnology	236
Conception and the Chance of Error	237
A Refutation of Scepticism	238
The Merits of Scepticism	240
Materialism and Belief: The Identity Theory	241
Extreme Materialism	246
The Scientific Rejection of Materialism	247
Metaphysical Speculations	247
INDEX	251