

Postcolonial Comics

Texts, Events, Identities

Edited by

Binita Mehta and Pia Mukherji

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

BINITA MEHTA AND PIA MUKHERJI

PART I

Geographies of Contact: Gibraltar / Malta / Asia-Pacific

1 Plural Pathways, Plural Identities: Jean-Philippe Stassen's
Les Visiteurs de Gibraltar 29

MICHELLE BUMATAY

2 Joe Sacco's "Prying Outsiders": Marginalization, Graphic
Novel Form, and the Ethics of Postcolonial Representation 44

SAM KNOWLES

3 Tezuka Osamu's Postcolonial Discourse towards a Hybrid National Identity 59

ROMAN ROSENBAUM

PART II

Francophone Post-Histories: Algeria / Congo / Gabon

4 Memory and Postmemory in Morvandiau's D'Algérie 77

ANN MILLER

5 Guilty Melancholia and Memorial Work: Representing the Congolese Past in Comics 92

VÉRONIQUE BRAGARD

6 Visualizing Postcolonial Africa: La Vie de Pabé 111

BINITA MEHTA

PART III

Postcolonial Politics: India

- 7 Postcolonial Demo-graphics: Traumatic Realism in Vishwajyoti Ghosh's Delhi Calm 131
PRAMOD K. NAYAR
- 8 Graphics of Freedom: Colonial Terrorists and Postcolonial Revolutionaries in Indian Comics 142
HARLEEN SINGH
- 9 Graphic Ecriture: Gender and Magic Iconography in Kari 157
PIA MUKHERJI

PART IV

War, Nationhood, and Transnationalism: The Middle East

- 10 Visualizing the Emerging Nation: Jewish and Arab Editorial Cartoons in Palestine, 1939–48 171
JEFFREY JOHN BARNES
- 11 Drawing for a New Public: Middle Eastern 9th Art and the Emergence of a Transnational Graphic Movement 187
MASSIMO DI RICCO
- 12 Men with Guns: War Narratives in New Lebanese Comics 204
LENA IRMGARD MERHEJ
- Contributors* 223
- Index* 227