

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	ix

Introduction: Imaginative Methodologies: Creativity, Poetics and Challenges to Conventional Social Science	1
Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Michael S. Drake, Kieran Keohane and Anders Petersen

PART I READING

1 Chicago Vice and Virtue: The Poetic Imagination Meets the Sociological Imagination	23
Michael Hviid Jacobsen, Rasmus Antoft and Anja Jørgensen
2 Bacon, Kundera, Bauman	55
Keith Tester
3 José Saramago's Sociology	69
Michael S. Drake

PART II WRITING

4 Reading and Writing the Experimental Text	93
Norman K. Denzin
5 On Writing: On Writing Sociology	109
Zygmunt Bauman
6 Alice in Computerland	121
Laurel Richardson

PART III EXPLORING

- | | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 7 | Getting in Touch with the World: Meaning and Presence in Social Science
Svend Brinkmann | 133 |
| 8 | Theatricalized Reality and Novels of Truth: Respecting Tradition and Promoting Imagination in Social Research
Arpad Szakolczai | 155 |
| 9 | Creative Methods: Oracles, Poiesis and Epiphanies as Metaphors of Theorizing
Kieran Keohane | 177 |

PART IV TEACHING

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 10 | Creativity in the Classroom: The Poetics of Pedagogy
and Therapeutic Shock in Teaching Sociology
Anders Petersen, Michael Hviid Jacobsen and Rasmus Antoft | 197 |
| 11 | Inspiring 'The Methodological Imagination': Using Art
and Literature in Social Science Methods Teaching
Julie Seymour | 217 |
| 12 | Imagining the Outsiders: Exploring Literary Representations of 'the Other' as Pedagogic Practice
Louise Sturgeon-Adams | 235 |
| 13 | The Uses of Literary and Cinematic Characters in Teaching Sociology
Lisbeth B. Knudsen | 251 |
| | Index | 267 |