

Historical Interplay in French Music and Culture, 1860–1960

Edited by Deborah Mawer

Contents

List of figures, tables and examples	vii
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xiv
Note on the text	xvi

Introduction: revisiting French musical history	1
DEBORAH MAWER

PART I

French music and culture, 1860–1930	13
1 Patrimoine in French music: layers and crosscurrents from the Romantics to the 1920s	15
KATHARINE ELLIS
2 ‘Le Paradis deux fois perdu’: Debussy, Watteau and the fête galante	38
RICHARD LANGHAM SMITH
3 Saint-Saëns, d’Indy and the Rameau Œuvres complètes: new light on the Zoroastre editorial project (1914)	64
GRAHAM SADLER
4 Adventures in gastromusicology: Satie, La Sirène and Trois petites pièces montées (1919)	81
CAROLINE POTTER
5 Le Tombeau de Ronsard in La Revue musicale (1924): memory and historical interplay	97
HELEN JULIA MINORS

PART II

French music and culture, 1930–1960 119

- 6 Beyond neoclassicism: symphonic form, catharsis and political commentary in Barraine's Deuxième symphonie (1938) 121

LAURA HAMER

- 7 Tristan und Isolde in occupied Paris, 1941: a convenient solution to France's Wagner problem? 139

RACHEL ORZECH

- 8 Historical French music in French feature films of the Occupation years 157

ISABEL DE BERRIÉ

- 9 Jolivet's Rameau: theory, practice and temporal interplay 176

DEBORAH MAWER

- 10 Jolivet's Beethoven: supplementarity, topicality and alterity 198

JUN ZUBILLAGA-POW

- 11 Commission and omission: the canon according to Messiaen 214

CHRISTOPHER DINGLE

Select bibliography 233

Index 245