

CONTENTS	Foreword	ix
	Introduction	xiii
Chapter 1	What is marketing?	1
Chapter 2	The marketing audit: internal factors	10
Case Study 1	Natural History Museum, London	18
Chapter 3	The marketing audit: external factors	25
Case Study 2	Long Beach Museum of Art, California	35
Chapter 4	Designing the marketing strategy	39
Case Study 3	Penshurst Place and Gardens, Kent	51
Chapter 5	The marketing plan: traditional techniques	55
Case Study 4	'Eternal China' exhibition in California	69
Case Study 5	Fishbourne Roman Palace and Gardens, Sussex	83
Case Study 6	Advice from an advertising professional	90
Chapter 6	Tourism marketing	93
Case Study 7	Tourism marketing in an overcrowded market place (Bath)	100
Chapter 7	Marketing: new techniques and how to use them	104
Case Study 8	The promotion of Hampshire art galleries	112
Chapter 8	Audience development	114
Case Study 9	Audience development for the Getty Center, Los Angeles	122
Chapter 9	Research and evaluation	125
Case Study 10	Economic impact – 'Eternal China', California	134

Case Study 11	Visitor research – J. Paul Getty Museum, Los Angeles	136
Case Study 12	The Tate at St Ives, Cornwall	137
Case Study 13	The Museum of Science and Industry, Manchester	141
Chapter 10	Principles of public relations	147
Chapter 11	Public relations strategy	155
Case Study 14	Creating and promoting Museums Week	165
Chapter 12	The media overview	169
Chapter 13	Working with the media	179
Case Study 15	Press campaign for the George Washington exhibition, Huntingdon Library, San Marino	193
Case Study 16	Saving the Moran painting for the Bolton Museum and Art Gallery	202
Case Study 17	How the Angel of the North took the media by storm	204
Chapter 14	Communicating in a crisis	209
Case Study 18	Accidents and incidents – some examples	219
Case Study 19	Dealing with the threat of funding cuts	223
Chapter 15	Events as part of public relations	226
Case Study 20	A pre-Christmas event at the Natural History Museum, London	238
Chapter 16	Evaluating and measuring public relations	242
Chapter 17	Communicating with staff and stakeholders	250
Case Study 21	Stakeholders: an example from St Albans, Hertfordshire	259
Chapter 18	The relationship between marketing, public relations and fund-raising	263

Appendix 1	Extract, Museums and Galleries Commission Museum Visitor Study (MORI 1999)	272
Appendix 2	Resources	276
References		282
Index		283