

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword from the Office of the Mayor of the City of Bacoor	iii
Message from the First District of Cavite	v
Message from the Cavite Historical Society	vi
Acknowledgment	viii
Dedication	xiv

Chapter 1. Introduction	1
Chapter 2. The Struggle for Independence	15
Chapter 3. The Road to the Establishment of a Republic	51
Chapter 4. Turn of the Century Perspectives on August 1, 1898 Act of Independence	77
Chapter 5. Contemporary Historians' Perspectives on August 1, 1898 Act of Independence	95
Chapter 6. The Bacoor Act of Independence Document: A Historiographical Analysis	109
Chapter 7. The Truth About the August 1, 1898 Act of Independence in Bacoor	159
Bibliography	177
Index	230

Appendices:

A. June 12, 1898 Independence Proclamation Document at Kawit, Cavite (English Version by Sulpicio Guevarra Laws of the Phil. Republic	183
B. Decree of June 20, 1898 on the Administration of Provinces and Towns (English translation)	189
C. Revolutionary Government Circular from the Philippine Insurgent Records (Original Spanish Version)	199

D. Revolutionary Government Circular from the Philippine Insurgent Records (Original Tagalog Version)	204
E. J.R.M. Taylor Documents on Bacoor Assembly (English Version)	209
F. Apolinario Mabini La Revolucion Filipina Volume I, National Historical Institute (English Translation)	212
G. Emilio Aguinaldo’s Speech on August 3, 1898 from J.R.M. Taylor compilation (English Version)	217
H. Emilio Aguinaldo’s Letter to Foreign Governments dated August 6, 1898 From JR.M. Taylor compilation (English Version)	222
I. Emilio Aguinaldo’s Speech on the Ratification of Independence by the Malolos Congress on September 29, 1898	224
J. Pedro Paterno’s Speech on the Ratification of Independence by the Malolos Congress on September 29, 1898	227

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Apolinario Mabini, author of the Act of Independence Proclaimed on August 1, 1898 at Bacoor, Cavite
2. Students lined up to witness the August 1, 2017 commemoration of Bacoor Assembly at the old plaza	9
3. Reenactment of the arrival of Emilio Aguinaldo and his advanced guards at the Bacoor Assembly on August 1, 1898	10
4. Reenactment of the Cuenca family while waiting at the Bahay na Tisa on August 1, 1898	10
5. Reenactment of the exchange of ideas between Apolinario Mabini and Emilio Aguinaldo at the Bahay na Tisa in 1898	11
6. Reenactment of the oath taking ceremony of the municipal presidents on August 1, 1898	11
7. Mayor Lani Mercado-Revilla delivered her welcome remarks during the August 1, 2017 commemoration of Bacoor Assembly	12

8. Students from various schools actively participating in the commemoration of the August 1, 1898 Bacoor Assembly	12
9. Mayor Lani Mercado-Revilla, Vice-Mayor Catherine Sarino Evaristo, some Dist. 1 and Dist. 2 City Councilors with Mr. Paul Abaya Dr. Rene Escalante and Dr. Emmanuel Calairo	13
10 Mayor Lani Mercado-Revilla presided the meeting of the Local and Arts Council on July 12, 2017 with the Bacoor Assembly as the main agenda	13
11. From left: Vice Mayor Catherine Sarino Evaristo, Dr. Palmo Iya, Dr. Jose Andres Diaz, Mayor Lani Mercado-Revilla, Dr. Rene Escalante, Dr. Emmanuel Calairo and Pastor Henry Eduarte	14
12. The City of Bacoor Singing Ambassadors at the Bacoor Assembly commemoration held last August 1, 2017	14
13. Revolutionary Government Headquarters at Biyak-na-bato, Bulacan	23
14. Filipino Revolutionary Committee in Hong Kong (later known as Hong Kong Junta)	24
15. Julian Felipe, composer of the Phil. national hymn	25
16. Musical notes of the Philippine national hymn	26
17. Mrs. Marcela Agoncillo, sewer of the Philippine national flag	26
18. Ambrosio Rianzares Bautista, author of the Act of Proclamation of the Philippine Independence held in Kawit on June 12, 1898	36
19. Old five peso bill depicting the Proclamation of Independence held in Kawit on June 12, 1898	37
20. Revolutionary Government Headquarters at Bacoor, Cavite. (Also known as Cuenca House or Bahay na Tisa today)	38
21. Historical marker of the Revolutionary Government Headquarters in Bacoor	39
22. Grand staircase leading to the receiving area. Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today).	40
23. The area where President E. Aguinaldo held his office. Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today).	40
24. The main hall or receiving area. Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today).	41

xii PROCLAMATION: Philippine Independence

25. The dining table exclusively for the VIP's Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today)	41
26. President Emilio Aguinaldo's room. Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today)	42
27. Apolinario Mabini's room. Cuenca House (also known as Bahay na Tisa today)	42
28. Don Juan Cuenca, previous of the Bahay na Tisa during the revolution	43
29. Doña Candida Chaves, spouse of Don Juan Cuenca	43
30. Filipino Revolutionaries waiting for the arrival of President Emilio Aguinaldo in Malolos, Bulacan	52
31. Apolinario Mabini rode by a horse drawn carriage during the American period	57
32. Felipe Agoncillo and other diplomats in Paris, France	58
33. Treaty of Peace between the United States & Spain, 1899	59
34. Felipe Agoncillo, First Filipino Diplomat	60
35. Pedro A. Paterno, chairman of the Malolos Congress that ratified the Independence day on September 29, 1898	70
36. Arrival of President Emilio Aguinaldo at the Barasoain Church in Malolos, Bulacan	71
37. Gathering of people for the inauguration of the National Congress in Malolos, Bulacan	72
38. Ratification of independence by the Malolos Congress on September 29, 1898	73
39. Philippine national flag commemorating the ratification of independence by the Malolos Congress	74
40. Inauguration of the First Philippine Republic on January 23, 1898 in Malolos, Bulacan	75
41. The Malolos Constitution was promulgated on January 21, 1899	76
42. Epifanio de los Santos, author of the essay Aguinaldo y su Tiempo	81
43. Teodoro Kalaw, author of the book The Philippine Revolution	81
44. James LeRoy, says that independence proclamation was delayed till August 1, 1898	82
45. Essays of Epifanio de los Santos compiled in a book form by Teodoro Agoncillo	82
46. John Foreman says that August 1, 1898 was a proclamation of Independence	94
47. James Blount says that August 1, 1898 was a proclamation of Independence	94

48. Gregorio Zaide maintained that August 1, 1898 was a ratification of June 12, 1898 Act of Independence	99
49. Cesar Majul explained the rationale of Apolinario Mabini for his Act of Independence	99
50. O. D. Corpuz book Saga and Triumph highlighted August 1, 1898 Act of Independence in Bacoor	100
51. Felipe Calderon included August 1, 1898 independence document and not the June 12 independence document.....	113
52. Felipe Calderon quoted Pedro Paterno speech on the ratification of independence on September 29, 1898 by the Malolos Congress.....	113
53. Teodoro Kalaw published the Act of Independence by Apolnario Mabini in 1931	114
55. The National Historical Institute published the English translation of Teodoro Kalaw 1931 compilation of documents	114
56. Government circular in Spanish language titled Acta referring to the Proclamation of Independence on August 1, 1898 (pages 1-4)	117
57. Government circular in Tagalog language titled Acta referring to the Proclamation of Independence on August 1, 1898 (pages 1-4).	133
58. Government circular in Spanish language addressed to foreign countries rallying for the recognition of Philippine Independence	143
59. Sample oath taking document (in Spanish and Tagalog languages) of an elected local official to be signed by the Municipal President	144
60. Cordial relations between President Emilio Aguinaldo and President Diosdado Macapagal	153
61. President Emilio Aguinaldo parading at the Luneta Park holding the Philippine flag, one of his legacy to the Filipino people	154
62. President Emilio Aguinaldo holding the Philippine flag inside his mansion at Kawit, Cavite	163
63. Apolinario Mabini in his La Revolucion Filipina hurled harsh accusations against President Emilio Aguinaldo	166
63. President Emilio Aguinaldo broke his silence for almost four decades regarding the accusations of the sublime paralytic	167