

CONTENTS

LIST OF FIGURES	vii
LIST OF PLATES	ix
FOREWORD	xv
MAPS	xix

Part One

The History of Gothic Architecture

INTRODUCTION	I
1. The Aesthetic Function of the Rib	I
2. The Stylistic Significance of the Rib-Vault	10
I. THE TRANSITION	15
1. The Gothic Rib-Vaults of the First Generation (1093-1120)	15
2. Diagonality of Shafts, Multipartite Vaults, Pointed Arches, Keystones	17
3. The Ridge-Rib	30
4. Vaults with Arched Ridges	32
2. THE EARLY GOTHIC PERIOD	34
1. The Beginnings of the Gothic Structural System	34
2. Changes in Capitals and Bases	52
3. The Exposed Flying Buttress	54
4. Façades, Towers, Gables, Tabernacles	57
5. Hall-Churches	60
6. The Early Gothic Style in the Cistercian Order	62
7. The Spread of the Early Gothic Style and the Passive Transition	69
8. The Tierceron	73
3. THE HIGH GOTHIC STYLE, 1194-1300	79
1. The Organic Unification of Interior and Exterior. Finials and Balustrades	79
2. The High Gothic Pier. Tracery. Gargoyles	86
3. Horizontal Fusion in England and Spain	96
4. Glazed Triforia. Windows and their Gables. The Spherical Triangle. Cusps in Tracery	98
5. Façades. Doors. Blind Arcades and Tracery. The Elimination of Capitals	108
6. The Tierceron Star-Vault	115
7. The Spread of the Gothic Style, 1200-50	116
8. Regularity of Structure. Piers with Grooves. Triradials	125
9. The Sharpening of Profiles. Piers without Capitals. The Ogee Curve	128
10. Autonomous Tracery	131
11. The Gothic Wall	133
12. The Culmination of the High Gothic Style	135
13. The Spread of the Gothic Style, 1250-1320	139

CONTENTS

4. THE LATE GOTHIC STYLE	146
1. New Varieties of Ribs. Liernes. Net-Vaults	146
2. Curvilinear and Rectilinear	150
3. The Relaxation of Strict Regularity. Hall-Choirs	154
4. Pendant Bosses. Flying Ribs. Net-Vaults with Interrupted Ribs. Concave-sided Gables. Choirs with an Even Number of Sides	161
5. The Fan-Vault	169
6. The Spread of the Gothic Style in the Late Gothic Period	170
7. The Beginnings of the Flamboyant	177
8. Variations between 1390 and 1420	180
9. The Mature Late Gothic Style in Germany	184
10. The Mature Flamboyant	189
11. Spiral Shafts. Double-curved Ribs. Concave Profiles. Concave-sided Arches. Arches like Branches of Trees. Diamond-Vaults	192
12. Continuous Recession	201
13. The Gothic Style and the Style of the Renaissance	212
14. The Survival of the Gothic Style	214

Part Two

The General Problems of the Gothic Style

1. The Term 'Gothic' and the Concept of the Gothic Style	217
2. The Development of the Gothic Style seen as an Immanent Process	220
3. The Meaning and the Purpose of Church Architecture	225
4. Symbols of Meaning	229
5. Form Symbols	236
6. Gothic Architecture considered as Art	240
7. Secular Architecture during the Period of the Gothic Style	242
8. Gothic Sculpture	251
9. Gothic Painting	257
10. The Gothic Style and Scholasticism	260
11. The Root of the Gothic Style	264

LIST OF THE PRINCIPAL ABBREVIATIONS	271
-------------------------------------	-----

NOTES	273
-------	-----

BIBLIOGRAPHY	297
--------------	-----

The Plates

INDEX	303
-------	-----